BARNARD COLLEGE

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

Barnard College is the undergraduate college of liberal arts and sciences for women of Columbia University. Its Faculty is one of the Faculties of the University. Its graduates receive from Columbia the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Though Barnard is so closely a part of the University educationally, financially it is independent of Columbia, and has its own Board of Trustees.

Columbia University had its origin in the royal charter granted by Letters Patent in the reign of George II, King of England, to the Governors of the College of the Province of New York, in the City of New York, in America, creating them a Body Corporate to erect and maintain a college to be known as King's College "for the Instruction and Education of Youth in the Learned Languages and Liberal Arts and Sciences"; with power to elect their successors, to hold property, to appoint a president, fellows, professors, and tutors, and to confer degrees.

Because of its early relationship to Trinity Church and the grant to King's College of a valuable tract of land which was a portion of the Queen's Farm, there has always existed a close relationship between the religious life of the College and the Protestant Episcopal Church. The services at the College Chapel are in accordance with the liturgy of that church.

The Revolutionary War interrupted the active work of the institution, but in 1784 it was reopened as Columbia College. In 1912 the title was changed to Columbia University in the City of New York.

The University at the present time consists of Columbia College, the undergraduate college of liberal arts for men, which offers a program of studies leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts; the School of General Studies, with courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science; the School of Painting and Sculpture, with courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts; the School of Dramatic Arts, with courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts; the School of Law, with courses leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Laws, Master of Laws, and Doctor of the Science of Law; the College of Physicians and Surgeons, with courses leading to the degrees of Doctor of Medicine, Doctor of Medical Science, Doctor of Public Health, and Master of Science in Public Health, and with courses in nursing, occupational therapy, and physical therapy leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science, or to the diploma or certificate; the School of Engineering, with courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science, the several engineering degrees, and the degree of Master of Science; the School of Architecture, with courses leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Architecture and Master of Science; the School of Journalism, with courses leading to the degree of Master of Science; the School of Business, with courses leading to the degrees of Master of Science, Master of Business Administration, and Doctor of Philosophy; the School of Dental and Oral Surgery, with courses leading to the degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery; the School of Library Service, with courses leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Science and Master of Science; the nonprofessional Graduate Faculties of Political Science, Philosophy, and Pure Science, with courses leading to the degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy; the School of International Affairs, with courses leading to the degree of Master of International Affairs; the Russian Institute, with courses leading to a certificate. Under the University Council the degree of Bachelor of Science is offered for professional courses in Optometry. In addition to these schools and faculties, the University includes the independent corporations of Barnard College (1889), the undergraduate college for women, with courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts; Teachers College (1898), with courses offered under the Faculty of Teachers College leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Science, Master of Arts, and Master of Science; the Advanced School of Education in Teachers College (1935), with programs of study leading to the degree of Doctor of Education, and under the Department of Educational Research of the Faculty of Philosophy, to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy; the College of Pharmacy (1904), with courses leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Science and Master of Science; Union Theological Seminary (1928), whose faculty conducts certain University work leading to the degree of Master of Arts; New York Post-Graduate Medical School (1931), which offers advanced work in medicine, and the New York School of Social Work (1940), with courses leading to the degree of Master of Science.

Students not concerned with degree credit will find courses in the School of General Studies open to them, as well as a number of short courses in the Institute of Arts and Sciences.

The University maintains three sessions during the year: the Winter Session, beginning the last Wednesday of September and ending the first Thursday of February; the Spring Session, beginning the first Monday of February and ending the first Saturday of June; and the Summer Session, July 10 through August 18.

BARNARD COLLEGE

FOUNDING OF BARNARD COLLEGE. During the 1880's there developed in New York a demand for higher education for women comparable in quality to that given in the best colleges for men. It was felt that Columbia should somehow provide this, and in 1889 a group of men and women worked out with the Trustees of Columbia a plan for the establishment of a college for women affiliated with Columbia, but financially independent. A charter was granted by the State of New York, and promises of subscriptions for the support of the college during the first four years were secured. Mrs. Alfred Meyer played an active and leading part in raising the necessary funds and influencing others to a belief in the new institution. She became one of the original Trustees. The Reverend Arthur Brooks was elected Chairman of the Board, Mrs. Joseph H. Choate, Vice-Chairman, Mr. Hamilton Wright Mabie, Secretary, and Mr. Jacob H. Schiff, Treasurer. The other original Trustees were: Mrs. Francis B. Arnold, Miss Helen Dawes Brown, Mr. Silas B. Brownell, Mrs. William C. Brownell, Mr. Frederic R. Coudert, Mr. Noah Davis, Mr. George Hoadley, Mr. George A. Plimpton, Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson, Mrs. James S. T. Stranahan, Mrs. James Talcott, the Reverend Henry van Dyke, Miss Ella Weed, Mr. Everett P. Wheeler, Miss Alice Williams, and Mrs. Frances Fisher Wood.

President Frederick A. P. Barnard of Columbia College had for years been an ardent advocate of the admission of women to Columbia. As early as 1879 he urged this in his report to the Trustees, expressing the "profound conviction that, in the interests of society, the mental culture of women should be not inferior in character to that of men." It was fitting, therefore, that the founders of the new college should give it his name. With seven instructors selected from the teaching staff of Columbia and with fourteen regular and twenty-two special students, Barnard opened in the fall of 1889 in a rented house at 343 Madison Avenue.

RELATION TO THE UNIVERSITY. In 1900 when the growth of the College had made inappropriate the original informal arrangement for instruction, an agreement was made between the Trustees of Columbia College and of Barnard College by which Barnard was incorporated in the educational system of the University. By the provisions of this agreement, the President of the University is ex officio President of Barnard College. Barnard professors are appointed by the University on the nomination of the Dean with the approval of the President and the Trustees, and rank as professors of the University. The College is represented on the University Council by its Dean and two elected representatives. The graduates of Barnard receive their degrees from Columbia, and these degrees are maintained as of equal value with corresponding degrees conferred upon the graduates of Columbia College. The University libraries are open to women on the same terms as to men. Various opportunities in other schools of the University have also, through the relation of Barnard College to Columbia, been opened to Barnard students. On the other hand, Barnard has its separate corporate and financial organization, with its own Board of Trustees. It retains its own internal administration, conducted by the Dean, who is appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the Trustees of Barnard. Its courses are determined and administered by its own Faculty, consisting of all professors who give instruction at Barnard.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS. Since 1897 Barnard has occupied the land on Broadway between 119th and 120th Streets, just west of the main buildings of the University. In 1903 Milbank Quadrangle, extending from 119th to 116th Streets, was added through the gift of Mrs. A. A. Anderson. In 1936, largely through a gift from the General Education Board, the College purchased Riverside Quadrangle, between 119th and 120th Streets, Claremont Avenue and Riverside Drive. Milbank Hall and Brinckerhoff Hall, erected in 1896, the gifts respectively of Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Van Wyck Brinckerhoff, and Fiske Hall, erected in 1898, the gift of Mrs. Josiah M. Fiske, are three adjoining buildings on 119th Street; they contain the administrative offices, lecture rooms, and laboratories. Brooks Hall, a residence hall at the southern end of the Quadrangle on 116th Street, was erected in 1907. A residence hall adjoining Brooks Hall and known as Hewitt Hall was completed in 1925. Barnard Hall, given by Mr. Jacob H. Schiff and erected in 1917, is on Milbank Quadrangle near 117th Street; it contains the gymnasium, swimming pool, lunchroom, reading room, doctors' and nurses' offices, alumnae offices, Placement

Office, public relations offices, and rooms for student organizations. Riverside Building, a former private house on Riverside Drive, provides temporarily a few offices and classrooms. Barnard Camp, a 20-acre tract of wooded land in Westchester County, about 35 miles by parkways from the College, was given by the Alumnae in 1933, and provides opportunity for country weekends, sports, and recreation.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT. The College owns equipment, buildings, and grounds with a book value of $4,300,000, and holds productive funds providing a net income of about $219,000.

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE. The continuance of each student upon the rolls of the University, the receipt by her of academic credits, her graduation, and the conferring of any degree or the granting of any certificate are strictly subject to the disciplinary powers of the University, which is free to cancel her registration at any time on any grounds which it deems advisable. The disciplinary authority of the University is vested in the President in such cases as he deems proper, and, subject to the reserve powers of the President, in the Dean of each Faculty and the Director of the work of each administrative board.

RESIDENCE. All students not residing with their parents are required to live in Brooks Hall or Hewitt Hall unless they receive special permission to live with relatives. Applications for such permission, accompanied by letters of approval from parents or guardians, should be made before September 1 to Dr. Lorna F. McGuire, Associate Dean. Reservations for rooms outside, made without permission, will not be approved.

ADMISSION

General Statement

A student in Barnard College who has fulfilled the preliminary qualifications for candidacy for a degree is enrolled as a matriculated student of Columbia University.

Admission to the several schools and colleges of Columbia University presupposes certain educational qualifications, but the possession of the qualifications does not entitle a candidate to admission unless his or her character and personality are acceptable to the University and unless he or she is physically fit to undertake the work.

Each person whose registration has been completed will be considered a student of the University during the period for which such registration is held valid. No student registered in any school or college of the University shall at the same time be registered in any other school or college, even of Columbia University, without the consent of the appropriate Dean or Director.

In exceptional circumstances a student not enrolled as a matriculated student may be admitted to the University as a nonmatriculated student, with permission to attend such courses of instruction as he or she is qualified to take, but not as a candidate for a degree, certificate, or diploma in regular course. Nonmatriculated students are expected to conform to the same standards of attendance and scholarship as are required of matriculated students. Nonmatriculated students may receive a formal statement of the satisfactory completion of any course.

Exceptions may be made for students who are prevented from attending college on days set apart by their religion for observance if they make application to the appropriate college authority.

Policy and Procedure

Barnard College selects its students from an eligible list consisting of all candidates who present satisfactory evidence of good character, good health, good preparation, and intellectual ability.

In choosing the members of its freshman class and also the students from other colleges admitted to higher standing, the College keeps in mind the desirability of having a student body which, though reasonably congenial, will represent as far as possible a cross-section of the country geographically, economically, socially, and in other ways, so that it will be educationally valuable for the members to know one another and to work together. This consideration may influence the selections of the Committee on Admissions.

Each student who plans to enter the College should file an application for admission as early as possible, and accompany it by a money order or draft for $10 payable to Barnard College. Application forms may be obtained from the Director of Admissions. The application fee will not be credited on the college fees nor refunded for any cause. For other fees, see page 17.

Admission to the Freshman Class

Candidates are admitted to the freshman class only in September of each academic year.

Candidates must be at least fifteen years of age and must submit the following credentials:

- I. Satisfactory evidence of good character, personality, and promise. Confidential reports from the applicant's school principal and teachers are given most weight. A personal interview with a member of the Admissions Office staff is most desirable and in any case a photograph must be submitted.
- II. Satisfactory evidence of adequate health.
This consists of a health history and report of a health examination, submitted to the College Physician on a form supplied by the Admissions Office at the time the admission notice is sent.
- III. Satisfactory evidence of good preparation and intellectual ability.
  - A. Preparation consists normally of graduation from an approved secondary school, or some equivalent education acceptable to the College, representing a four-year course including: four years' work in English, three years in some foreign language, two years in another foreign language, a year in algebra, a year in plane geometry; the rest of the course should be selected mainly from history, science, additional languages, mathematics, music, and art. For premedical students additional work in mathematics and German is advised. For pre-engineering students three years of social studies, two years of French or German, mathematics through solid geometry and trigonometry, physics, and chemistry are required. Exceptions may be made under special conditions.
  - B. Ability is tested by means of the College Entrance Examination Board Scholastic Aptitude (Program I) and three Achievement tests. These are required in the senior year of secondary school of every candidate for admission to the freshman class and in some cases required of those who choose to enter with advanced standing. For complete information regarding these tests, see p. 14.

The emphasis will be placed on the candidate's ability to do college work successfully. If a student is admitted to Barnard College, she will be admitted without entrance conditions. If the time in secondary school has been curtailed or if the school record is lacking in some essential element, the College may require an additional term of work for graduation.

General Information Concerning Tests

The College Entrance Examination Board will administer the following four series of tests in 1949-50:

Saturday, June 4, 1949

Wednesday, August 24, 1949

Sat. Dec. 10, 1949

BARNARD COLLEGE

~~mar. 11,~~
 Saturday, ~~January 14,~~ 1950
 Saturday, ~~April 15,~~ 1950
~~may 30,~~

Scholastic Aptitude (including a verbal and mathematical section—three hours, Programs I, II and III) . . . . . 8:45 A.M.

Achievement Tests (not more than three of the following one-hour tests can be taken in any one series) . . . . . 1:45 P.M.

English Composition	Latin Reading
Social Studies	Spanish Reading
French Reading	Biology
German Reading	Chemistry
Greek Reading (April only)	Physics
Italian Reading (April only)	Spatial Relations

Those required for admission to Barnard are:

Scholastic Aptitude Test (Program I)

Three Achievement Tests, including

- (1) English Composition
- (2) A choice of French, German, Greek, Italian, Latin, or Spanish
- (3) A choice of Social Studies or one of: Biology, Chemistry, Physics.

A single Bulletin of Information containing rules for the filing of applications and the payment of fees, lists of examination centers, etc., may be obtained without charge from the College Entrance Examination Board. The Board does not publish a detailed description of the Scholastic Aptitude Tests or the Achievement Tests. Brief descriptions are included in the Bulletin. A practice form of the test will be sent to every candidate who registers for it.

Application for the tests should be obtained from and filed with either the Princeton Office or the Pacific Coast Office of the College Entrance Examination Board.

Residents of California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Utah, Colorado, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, Alaska, Hawaii, Australia, and all Pacific Islands except Japan and Formosa should mail their completed applications and fees to the Pacific Coast Office of the Board, P. O. Box 775, Berkeley, California.

Candidates who wish to take their examinations in regions not served by the Pacific Coast Office should mail their completed applications and fees to the Princeton Office of the Board, Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey. When ordering the forms, candidates should state whether they wish to take the April, June, August, or January tests.

In order to facilitate the arrangements for the conduct of the tests, all applications should be filed as early as possible. The normal closing dates for the receipt of applications in Princeton, New Jersey, or Berkeley, California, are as follows: four weeks before the date of the examination; and for candidates outside of the United States, Canada, Mexico, and the West Indies, seven weeks before the date of the examination. A penalty fee of three dollars (which should accompany the application) will be charged for applications received later than the normal closing date. No applications received in Princeton or Berkeley later than one week before the examination date will be considered. Candidates may not register for the tests at the examination centers. Each application should be accompanied by the appropriate examination fee:

Scholastic Aptitude Test alone . . . . .	$6.00
One, two, or three Achievement Tests . . . . .	8.00
Scholastic Aptitude and one, two, or three Achievement Tests . . . . .	12.00

The Board will report the results of the tests to the institutions indicated on the candidate's application. The colleges will, in turn, notify the candidates of the action taken upon their applications for admission. Candidates will not receive reports upon their tests from the Board.

Admission to Advanced Standing

Candidates are admitted to advanced standing in September and February.

Students who have satisfactorily completed at least a year of work at an acceptable college, scientific school, or foreign institution of equivalent grade may be admitted with such advanced credit as their previous records may warrant. In general a candidate with a good record transferring to Barnard from a similar college of equal standing will receive at Barnard a year's credit for a year's work at the institution from which she comes.

Credit will be allowed after a successful year at Barnard for such courses of the United States Armed Forces Institute as may be approved by the Faculty of Barnard College and for certain work in the military training record of the applicant. No credit is allowed toward the Barnard degree for nurses' training.

Each candidate should send to the Committee on Admissions with her application a catalogue of her college plainly marked, showing entrance credit and courses taken. The applicant should request the college to send an official transcript of her college record, including entrance credit. If for any reason a student cannot obtain an official record until the end of the term, she may substitute her report cards. One or the other must be in the hands of the Committee on Admissions before the Committee on Students' Programs can estimate her standing in Barnard College. The Committee on Students' Programs will give an applicant a tentative estimate of the time she will be expected to spend at Barnard in order to secure a degree, and the prescribed work she will be asked to do. Final determination of these matters lies with the Committee on Students' Programs which reserves the right of readjusting credit at any time. These reports should be received by the Committee on Admissions by July 1 for admission in September and by December 1 for admission in February; otherwise action on the case may be delayed until just before the opening of college. Final action on admission depends upon (1) the honorable dismissal, (2) the certificate of good moral character from an authorized representative of her college, and (3) the certificate of adequate health.

If all credentials are not in the hands of the Committee on Admissions by Friday, September 16, the student's registration may be deferred until Saturday, September 24, involving an additional fee of $15 for late registration.

No applicant may enter the senior class as a candidate for a degree after

October 15 in any year, and no student will receive a degree who has been a full-time matriculated student less than two full sessions at Barnard College. It is, however, difficult even for a good student to secure a degree in one year at Barnard. (See also paragraph 8, page 26.)

A candidate for admission with advanced standing from a junior college may be asked to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test, Program I, and if admitted, will be allowed to enter courses that succeed her junior college courses. No definite credit for her junior college work can be assigned until after she has had an opportunity to establish a good record at Barnard.

Admission as Special Students

Women who wish, without working toward a degree, to make a serious study of some subject or group of subjects, may, with the approval of the Committee on Admissions, enter Barnard as nonmatriculants, not candidates for the degree. They need not pass formal entrance examinations, but they must submit satisfactory credentials in regard to character and qualifications for the courses they wish to take.

Candidates for admission as nonmatriculants must be mature. They may not pursue merely elementary courses. They must not, within ten months of the time of application, have been rejected or become deficient as regular students.

They will be held to the observance of the same regulations as to attendance, examination in course, proficiency, and deficiency as regular students. They are also subject to the usual health regulations.

They are entitled to a formal statement as to the satisfactory completion of the work that they have taken. They may, in view of a good record in college courses, be transferred by the Committee on Instruction to the matriculated basis as candidates for a degree.

REGISTRATION

Before attending any University exercise each student shall comply with the regulations in regard to registration and payment of fees.

Students already in college shall give notice of their choice of courses for each session to the Registrar on dates to be announced. Failure to file a program during the proper period will result in a fine of $10. Students in college who defer filing programs until after Commencement will incur a fine of $20. Bills (including bills for room and board for resident students), accompanied by checks or money orders, and any other documents required by the Bursar, and, in September, by University directory cards, must be mailed to the Bursar so that they bear the postmark of September 15 or earlier for the winter term and January 15 or earlier for the spring term. Failure to mail bills on time will entail a late registration fee of $15.

New Students. Appointments at the college for the planning of their programs and the filing of registration forms will be made for the majority of transfers and freshmen in the weeks preceding the opening of the winter or the spring term. Members of the faculty and administrative officers will also be available for consultation on Monday and Tuesday, September 26 and 27, 1949, and on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, February 2, 3, and 4, 1950. Bills (including bills for room and board for resident students), accompanied by checks or money orders, and any other documents required by the Bursar, must be received by the Bursar before the opening day of the term, September 28, 1949, or February 6, 1950. If mailed to the Bursar, the envelope must be postmarked September 27, 1949, or earlier, or February 6, 1950, or earlier. Failure to mail bills on time will entail a late registration fee of $15.

Each person whose registration has been completed will be considered a student of the University during the period for which such registration is held valid. No Barnard student may register in any other school or college, either of Columbia University or of any other institution, without the consent of the Dean.

Withdrawal

An honorable discharge will be granted to any student in good academic standing, not subject to discipline, who withdraws from the College. A student who withdraws is required to notify the Registrar in writing. No student under the age of twenty-one years shall be entitled to a discharge without the assent of her parent or guardian furnished in writing to the Dean. (See Refunds, p. 20.)

FEES

General Statement

All fees are payable semiannually in advance (see instructions under REGISTRATION), and no reduction is made for late registration. Registration is not complete until all fees are paid, including residence halls fees. Failure to pay fees on time (see REGISTRATION) imposes automatically the statutory charge of $15 for late registration.

In special cases, for satisfactory reasons and upon payment of a nominal fee, permission may be obtained from the Bursar to defer the payment of approximately one-half the total bill for the session until approximately mid-term—November 18 or March 20—provided that permission is granted before August 15 or December 15. Any application for the privilege of deferred payment made after August 15 or December 15 will be considered late payment and as such will be subject to a $5 late payment fee. In every case where the privilege of deferred payment has been granted, each payment must be made on the due date or an additional $5 late payment fee will be incurred. In case of withdrawal the entire bill for tuition and residence will become due immediately.

The fees to be paid by students are subject to change at any time at the discretion of the Trustees.

Checks in payment of all fees, including those for charges in the residence halls, should read "Pay to the order of Barnard College," and should be made out for the exact amount of the payment due. As change will not be given on checks, no check which is made out for more than the correct amount will be accepted.

Every financial obligation to the College incurred by the student must be met by January 1 of the winter session or by May 1 of the spring session, if the student is to be permitted to take her examinations and receive credit for the session's work.

The privileges of the College are not available to any student who is delinquent in the payment of her fees.

(The application fee of $10, payable when application for admission is filed, is not credited on the bill and is never refunded. It should not be confused with the registration fee, payable each session.)

For all students for each session:

A. Registration fee . . . . .	$ 10.00
B. Tuition
1. For matriculated students enrolled:
a. For 10 points or more . . . . .	340.00
b. For 9 points or less, $33 per point for academic work and $5 for physical education, if this is required.
2. For nonmatriculated students: $33 per point for aca- demic work and $5 for physical education, if this is re- quired, with a maximum fee of $340.00.

In addition, a Student Activities Fee is charged all matriculated students . . . . .	4.50
	$354.50*

* By vote of the majority of the students of the dormitories a partial work program has been inaugurated, whereby the rent has been raised only $20 instead of $70 for 1949-50. Every student

Additional fees for all resident students for each session:

(A room deposit of $50 is payable by May 15 to the residence halls to secure the assignment of a room. This deposit will be applied $25 to the rent bill of the winter session and $25 to the rent bill of the spring session. The entire deposit is forfeited in case of withdrawal.)

A. Room . . . . .	$185.00
B. Board . . . . .	200.00

December 1 . . . . .	50.00
January 15 . . . . .	304.50
	$709.00*

In order to obtain a place on the college list for the ensuing winter or spring session, students who are currently enrolled must pay a deposit of $50 on or before May 15 and December 1 respectively. Applicants for admission or readmission must make this advance payment at the time they signify their acceptance of admission or readmission to the College.

The deposit of $50 will be applied to the tuition bill of the winter or spring session, as the case may be. The entire deposit is forfeited in case of a student's failure to enter or of her withdrawal.

For a resident full-time student (taking 10 points or more) will be expected to take part in this work program. A $5 Medical Fee will be charged to all students beginning with the academic year 1949-50.

BARNARD COLLEGE

Refunds

As contracts with instructors and provisions for education and residence are made by the College for the entire year in advance, no refunds of registration, tuition, or rent can be made after these fees become due, except in cases of extreme hardship, of which the College shall be the sole judge. Refunds for board are computed on a pro rata basis covering the period of six weeks from the date of withdrawal to the end of the session.

Additional ChargesTuition for courses in applied music:

For special fee in each case, see departmental announcement of course.

Tuition for technical courses in fine arts if not taken for credit and not in conjunction with theoretical work in fine arts:

For special fee in each case, see announcement of the School of General Studies.

Tuition for professional courses that are not taken for credit and for General Studies classes that, with the permission of the Committee on Instruction, are taken for credit toward the Barnard degree. This varies with the course taken.

Late Registration (see page 17) . . . . . $15.00

Privilege of filing program late . . . . . 10.00

For students in college who fail to file their programs for the coming session within the period announced for that purpose by the Committee on Instruction. Students in college who defer filing programs until after Commencement are fined $20.

Late change of program . . . . . 5.00

Any change in program initiated by any student and made after the period announced for that purpose by the Committee on Instruction.

Examinations, payable in each case before the examination is held:

For each and every deficiency or special examination . . . . . 3.00

(A special or deficiency examination is one taken at any time other than at the conclusion of a course actually attended.)

For late application . . . . . 5.00

For the degree . . . . . 20.00

This fee is never refunded. It must be paid on or before April 15 by candidates for the degree in June or October and by January 1 by candidates for the degree in February.

Deposits for the use of apparatus, material, and the like are required in:

Chemistry 63, 64, each course . . . . . 10.00

Chemistry 41, 42, 65, 66, each course . . . . . 12.50

Chemistry 41a, 107, 108, 137, 138, 145, 146, 150, each course . . . . . 15.00

Miscellaneous Expenses Not Payable to the College

This estimate does not include individual allowances for clothes, travel, amusements, supplies, etc.

For information regarding various scholarships, ranging from $75 to $950, which are available to students in need of assistance, see page 134.

Student Hospital Insurance

Barnard students may join the Associated Hospital-United Medical Service plan for surgical and medical expense indemnity. Membership in this plan costs $22.56 for twelve consecutive months beginning October 1, 1949. It entitles members to hospitalization and to the services of a surgeon and other medical facilities during hospitalization.

A student who is interested in joining this plan should secure an enrollment card from the Bursar, execute it, and return it before September 15, 1949, with a check made payable to Barnard College. Contracts will be sent to members by the Associated Hospital Service after October first.

Fees of State Scholars

Each State Scholar should file at the office of the Bursar at the time of registration the notice which she has received from Albany stating that a State Scholarship has been awarded to her. On the basis of this official notice she is entitled to a credit of $175 a session.

A State Scholarship Certificate for each of these students is then sent from Albany to the Bursar, who records all necessary information and forwards the certificate to its owner. This certificate need not be presented again at the Bursar's office.

Safekeeping of Students' Funds

For the convenience and protection of students while in residence at the University the Bursar of Columbia University, in Room 310 University Hall, is prepared to receive funds for safekeeping, subject to the printed regulations, copies of which may be obtained at his office upon request. There is no charge for this service.

* See footnote on pages 18-19.

Personal checks will not be cashed by the University or credit allowed until the money has actually been received from the bank on which the check is drawn. However, checks, drafts, and money orders may be deposited for collection. Students should provide themselves with traveler's checks to cover their immediate expenses.

THE PROGRAM OF STUDIES

In order to provide for its students an opportunity to develop their minds, characters, and physical well-being, Barnard College has set up certain requirements for the degree and offers a wide range of courses of study. The Faculty does not believe that any one curriculum is best for all students. The requirements for the degree, therefore, constitute an elastic framework within which a great variety of curriculums can be planned, under the guidance of the different departments or interdepartmental committees, adapted to the aptitudes and interests of many types of students.

There are very few specific requirements.

The College believes that every student should be able to speak and write good English, and that her mind should be trained to think straight, weigh facts, and seek the truth. Such abilities may be developed in many courses and activities, but specifically the Faculty requires English A as helpful toward this end.

The College believes, also, that every student should know the laws of health and apply them to her daily living and should develop as sound and vigorous a body as her constitution permits. To these ends the Faculty requires Hygiene A in the freshman year and Physical Education throughout the college course.

The College believes, also, that every student should have command of at least one foreign language and through this attain some knowledge of the nature of the people to which it belongs. The Faculty, therefore, requires every candidate for the degree to pass a test showing that she can read at sight with ease one of the following languages: French, German, Greek, Latin, Italian, or Spanish—with substitution of other languages permitted in special cases.

Class Advisers

In order to give each student the best possible direction for her work, a system of class advisers has been established. Each adviser will carry a class through to graduation, in the junior and senior years coöperating closely with the adviser in the student's major field. Associate Dean McGuire is the Chairman of the Class Advisers. The Class Advisers are: Professor Clara Eliot, for the Class of 1953; Professor Gertrude V. Rich, for the Class of 1952; Professor Lorna F. McGuire, for the Class of 1951; and Professor Virginia D. Harrington, for the Class of 1950.

The Group Requirement

The College believes that every candidate for the degree should have enough general education to give her some knowledge of the nature of the main fields of human thought. The Faculty accordingly requires all students to distribute their work sufficiently among the three groups in which all the subjects are classified so that they acquire at least 14 points of credit in each group. The greater part of this group requirement is usually met in the freshman and sophomore years.

Group I is made up of the languages, literatures, and fine arts. Each student is asked to take her 14 points in this group for the most part in courses beyond elementary or introductory study.

Group II is made up of the natural sciences and mathematics. Since the Faculty believes that every educated person should have some contact with scientific method and thought, each student is required to take one of the laboratory science courses listed below.

Group III is made up of the social sciences. Believing that every educated person should have some knowledge of the long history of man, the Faculty requires that all candidates for the degree must take at least six points of the 14 required in this group in history.

The Major Requirement

As the group requirement is designed to distribute the student's work in the different fields of knowledge and thus to prevent undue specialization, so the major requirement is designed to insure some degree of concentration in a chosen field during the last two years of her course.

Each student selects her major at the end of her sophomore year. She then becomes subject to the requirements laid down by the department or interdepartmental committee of her choice. Under their guidance she has considerable freedom in selecting courses, but she must take at least 28 points in her major subject and meet the specific prescriptions of courses in the major and related subjects. Before graduation, she must pass the major examination, which is designed to test the candidate's command of the subject, or of some definite part of the subject, as a unified and coherent whole.

Requirements for the Degree

The requirement for graduation is the satisfactory completion of 120 points, exclusive of the prescribed work in physical education. A point usually signifies the equivalent of one hour of classroom attendance or two hours of laboratory work per week. Thus a three-point course normally meets for three hourly periods in one week.

Upon satisfactory completion of a program arranged according to the regulations of the College, the student is recommended by the Faculty of Barnard College to the Trustees of Columbia University for the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Diplomas are issued in June, February, and October.

Specific Prescriptions

English A . . . . .	6 points
History . . . . .	6 points
Hygiene A . . . . .	2 points
Physical Education, A, B, C, D . . . . .	no points

Ability to read at sight with ease one of the following languages: French, German, Greek, Italian, Latin, or Spanish. This ability is tested by an examination which should be taken as early as possible in the college course.

One full-year course in a second foreign language if the student has not already acquired this knowledge.

A major subject of at least . . . . . 28 points in Group I, II, or III (see below) and a major examination designed to test the candidate's command of the subject, or of some definite part of the subject, as a unified and coherent whole.

Courses amounting to not less than 14 points in each of the two remaining groups subject to the restrictions noted below . . . . 28 points

Electives . . . . . 50 points

Required for the degree . . . . . 120 points

Groups of Study

GROUP I. Languages, Literatures, and Fine Arts:

Ancient Art, Anthropology (Courses 6, 7, 8, 107, 108), Classical Literatures (in translation), Comparative Linguistics, English, Esthetics (Philosophy 41-42, 45, 53, 54, 145), Fine Arts, French, German, Greek, Italian, Latin, Music, Portuguese, Romance Philology, Russian, Spanish.

RESTRICTIONS: The 14 points may not include (1) more than one elementary course in ancient foreign languages, (2) any first-year course in modern foreign languages, (3) English A.

GROUP II. Mathematics and Natural Sciences:

Anthropology (Courses 3, 4), Astronomy, Botany, Chemistry, Geography, Geology, Logic (Philosophy 5), Mathematics, Physics, Psychology (Courses 7-8, 9, 12, 22, 23, 25, 48, 58), Statistics (Economics 18), Zoölogy.

RESTRICTIONS: 8 to 10 of the 14 points must be in one of the following laboratory sciences: botany, chemistry, geology, physics, experimental psychology, zoölogy.

GROUP III. Social Sciences:

Anthropology (Courses 1, 2, 13, 14, 17, 51, 52), Archaeology, Classical Civilization, Economics, Geography, Government, History, Philosophy, Psychology (Courses 1, 26, 27, 28, 37), Religion, Sociology, Statistics (Economics 17).

RESTRICTIONS: All candidates for the degree, whatever their major, must take at least 6 points of history.

Program for Students Admitted by Transfer from Other Colleges

Students from other colleges transferring to Barnard College will be held to the requirements for the degree outlined on page 24, including the major, history, laboratory science, and language requirements. The English A requirement may usually be satisfied by passing a proficiency test. Of the points required for the degree 30 must be taken at Barnard, as well as a minimum of 12 points in the major subject. No credit is allowed toward the Barnard degree for work of D grade done elsewhere.

In general, those students who have been admitted by transfer to Barnard College will be allowed to enter the class to which their previous records entitle them. The Committee on Students' Programs will determine, in conference with the student, the program of work that she shall take in the light of her previous academic record, her experience and maturity, her intellectual interests, and professional plans.

Sufficiently able students may transfer to professional schools provided they meet the standards required by the University Committee on Admissions.

Courses in the Graduate Faculties Open to Barnard Students

Certain graduate courses in Columbia University under the Faculties of Political Science, Philosophy, and Pure Science and at Teachers College are open, with the consent of the department concerned and the Class Adviser, to qualified seniors. Since graduate work is on a different basis of credit from undergraduate work, a student in Barnard College may take graduate courses only if special arrangements have been made for the supervision of her work. A senior of unusual ability may request permission to elect two graduate courses in her major field.

Graduate courses may be counted toward the Bachelor's degree when approved by the Committee on Students' Programs. An undergraduate of high standing, who is within 12 points of that degree, may register for graduate courses in partial fulfillment of the requirements for a higher degree, with the approval of the appropriate Deans. However, she can receive graduate credit only for the difference between 15 points and the number of points needed, at the beginning of the session, to complete the requirements for the Bachelor's degree.

For full information concerning the content of the courses, students are referred to the appropriate University announcements mentioned at the end of the departmental statements.

Degree with Honors

Degrees with honors will be awarded to students who have completed the work for the degree with highest distinction (summa cum laude), with high distinction (magna cum laude) and with distinction (cum laude).

GENERAL REGULATIONS REGARDING THE PROGRAM OF STUDIES, EXAMINATIONS IN COURSE, CREDIT, AND ADVANCEMENT

ELECTION OF COURSES. Before final choice of courses, all students should consult their advisers. (To avoid conflicting hours, see Scheme of Attendance, page 130.) For advice concerning an advantageous combination of courses in related departments, officers in the departments concerned should be consulted.

The following regulations should also be borne in mind:

1. No courses other than those specified in the Announcement may be taken without the consent of the Committee on Students' Programs.
2. The election of courses under the Graduate Faculties of Political Science, Philosophy, and Pure Science is restricted to qualified seniors and requires the consent of the head of the Barnard department and of the Class Adviser. (For further details see page 25.)
3. Specific courses in the School of General Studies of Columbia University may be credited toward the Bachelor's degree under the following regulations:
  - a. Courses must be approved by the Committee on Students' Programs and by the Director of the School of General Studies.
  - b. Students cannot elect more than 16 points in any one session, including the points of the School of General Studies, without special permission of the Committee on Students' Programs.
  - c. Students desiring to count these courses toward the degree must obtain in them a grade of at least C.
  - d. Fees for certain courses taken in the School of General Studies are not included in the regular tuition. Such fees will be added to the Barnard College bill.
4. No combination of courses amounting to less than 12 or more than 16 points may be made in any winter or in any spring session without the consent of the Class Adviser.
5. No credit will be given for a one-hour course unless it is taken in connection with and as a supplement to a cognate course.
6. No credit whatsoever is allowed for a course elected on an optional or audit basis, even though all work has been completed. If, subsequent to her original registration, the student decides that she wishes credit, she must file a change of program in the Registrar's office.
7. No more than four hours of class work, or its equivalent in laboratory work, or seven hours of class work and laboratory work combined, may be taken on the same day.
8. Of the points required for the degree, at least 30 must be taken while the student is registered in Barnard College, and at least 15 during the senior year. A minimum of 12 points of the major must be taken at Barnard.

9. The election of specific courses in a summer session must be approved by the Committee on Students' Programs of Barnard College. Except by special permission of the Committee on Students' Programs, any student whose average standing lies below 2.50 (see page 29) during the preceding academic year will be restricted to six points of work for a six-weeks' session and a proportionate amount for longer sessions.

Summer session courses must be passed with a grade of at least C in order to be credited toward the Barnard degree. Additional credit for high standing is not given for summer work.

No credit toward the degree will be allowed for work taken in a summer session unless a report is submitted within a month of the student's return to Barnard.

10. Tuesday at 1:10 p.m. is the Assembly hour. Academic meetings at which attendance is required are held at this time. Students should keep the hour free from other engagements.

Time Limit for Counting Work toward a Degree. All requirements for a degree must be fulfilled by the candidate within six years from the time of her first matriculation as a freshman in college, whether at Barnard or elsewhere; within four and a half years from similar matriculation as a sophomore; within three years from similar matriculation as a junior; and within one and a half years from similar matriculation as a senior. If the candidate fails to satisfy the requirements within the time here specified, she is to lose credit for all the points gained by her toward the degree unless the Faculty shall otherwise direct.

The Foreign Language Requirement. The foreign language tests are held in January, in May, and in September, and are open to students according to regulations announced by the Committee on Instruction. A student must pass the test before the beginning of her senior year. She will be suspended until the requirement is satisfied unless the Committee on Instruction permits her to remain for one session on probation with a limited program. A senior transfer who fails the test will be ranked as unclassified, with no promise as to when she will be recommended for the degree.

After a student has satisfied all other degree requirements she is permitted only two additional trials of the test.

Transfer students and entering freshmen who are well-grounded in a foreign language are advised to try the test on arrival.

Change of Program. No change of program, by adding or dropping a course, or by changing sections, may be made by a student without the written consent of the Committee on Students' Programs. No change involving the point value of a course may be made without the approval of the Committee on Instruction. Except on the initiative of the department or the Class Adviser, changes will not be allowed for old students after the first Monday following the opening of either the winter or the spring session. New students are allowed an additional period of five days in which to make changes. All student-initiated changes except for those made in the summer (prior to August 15), unless necessitated by exceptional circumstances, entail a fee of $5. (See also paragraph on fees, page 20.)

Absences. All students are expected to attend regularly and promptly the courses for which they are registered. Any considerable amount of absence or tardiness will result in the lowering of a student's grade or the loss of one or more points of credit.

The attendance of students on the Dean's List is not supervised by the Committee on Instruction. Instructors, however, have authority to lower the grade in the case of undue absence or tardiness.

The attendance of all other students is under the supervision of the Committee on Instruction who, at the end of each semester, will deal with absences exceeding the number of class hours in any week, that is, more than 1 absence from a class meeting 1 hour a week more than 2 absences from a class meeting 2 hours a week

more than 3 absences from a class meeting 3 hours a week
more than 4 absences from a class meeting 4 hours a week
more than 5 absences from a class meeting 5 hours a week

Two latenesses equal one absence. Students are expected to reserve their absences for illness and other urgent reasons. Illness will be taken into consideration by the Committee on Instruction as a possible excuse for excess absence only if a statement is filed by the student in the Registrar's office immediately on her return to college.

Stated Examinations. Two series of examinations are held every year, one in January and the other in May. These are the only stated examinations. In 1950, the mid-year examinations begin on Monday, January 23, the final examinations on Wednesday, May 24.

Deficiency Examinations. Deficiency examinations are held only in September, preceding the opening of College. Such examinations must be taken in the September following the examination period in which the student was absent, or not later than the second September therefrom.

Students in the last half of their senior year, who are unavoidably absent during the January or May examination period, may request special examinations.

Deficiency examinations are open only to students who have been absent from the stated examination for imperative reasons, provided their work during the term has been satisfactory.

In all cases application for permission to take a deficiency examination must be made in writing. A fee of $3.00, payable in advance, is charged for each deficiency examination (see page 20).

Grades and Credits. The student's performance in a course is rated according to the following grades: A, excellent; B, good; C, fair; D, poor; P, passed without specific grade; F, failure. The mark Incomplete is given only when the student has obtained, in advance, the permission of the instructor to postpone the submission of certain outstanding work which must be made up before a specific grade can be reported. Under the regulations of the Faculty, outstanding work that is not completed within three weeks after the end of the session automatically becomes an F.

Standing in college is determined by a valuation of each academic point according to the mark received. Each point with a mark of A counts 4; B, 3; C, 2; D, 1; F (or Absent or Incomplete until satisfied), 0. The average mark per point constitutes the student's rating.

No student may count in any one year more than six points of D work. In case more than four years is required for her degree, not more than 24 points of D work altogether may count toward the degree. Of several courses in which a student is marked D she may choose the ones to be counted. No work of grade D may count in the major of 28 points. No work of grade D taken in a summer session, in the School of General Studies, or in any other institution previously attended may be counted.

At the end of the sophomore year the records of all students will be scrutinized. Only those who have attained at Barnard College at least a C average (2.00 rating) or who have shown promise of future development will be permitted to continue in college and pursue the more advanced study of the junior and senior years.

In order to be recommended for the degree, each student must attain at Barnard College an average of C or above for the entire course and for the senior year.

If a student fails to attain a C average at the end of four years and consequently does not receive a degree at this time, the Committee on Instruction will consider her case and determine whether or not she may continue her candidacy for the degree.

Dean's List. At the end of each academic year, there will be compiled a Dean's List to consist of students who, in the opinion of the Committee on Honors, deserve special mention for scholarly excellence during the previous year. Names will be announced at the opening of the following academic year.

Additional Credit for High Standing. At the end of the winter and the spring session, additional credit for high standing is given as follows:

The grade A in courses aggregating six points of work entitles the student to one point of extra credit, provided she has carried a program of at least 12 points, has satisfactorily completed all the work of the session, and has not fallen below the grade B or received a report of Absent, Incomplete, or Deferred in any course, including Physical Education. Additional credit for high standing is not given for summer session work.

Freshmen, those who have completed less than 24 points of academic work.

Sophomores, those who have completed 24 points.

Juniors, those who have completed 54 points.

Seniors, those who have completed 86 points.

Unclassified students,

those who have not yet been assigned definite credit on transfer,

senior transfers who have not passed the foreign language test, those who are electing less than 10 points a term.

PROFESSIONAL SCHOOLS OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY OPEN TO BARNARD STUDENTS OR GRADUATES

The requirements for admission to the professional schools of the University vary: in some instances a Bachelor's degree is necessary; in others a student is eligible after three years, two years, or one year of successful college study. Since only a limited number of students can be accommodated, the most promising applicants are selected by the office of University Admissions.

Barnard College keeps in close touch with these schools and endeavors to give its students the best possible advice concerning preparation for them.

Barnard students preparing for admission to these professional schools must take at Barnard the courses in written and spoken English (English A), Hygiene A, and Physical Education, normally required of all degree candidates. They should also elect the subjects required by the special school they hope to enter.

Full information regarding each school may be obtained from its own special announcement, which will be sent on request by the Secretary of Columbia University.

THE PROFESSIONAL OPTION

An exceptionally good student may shorten her course by means of the so-called "professional option"—a plan under which permission is given to count the first year in a professional school in place of the senior year at Barnard. To be eligible for this privilege, a student must complete at Barnard before transferring to the professional school 90 points of academic work, including all group requirements, and a major of 28 points, unless this number is reduced in individual cases by special permission of the Committee on Instruction.

Students transferring to Barnard from other institutions will be granted the privilege of professional option only if they have an unusually good record and in no case will permission be given until after the student has completed at least one full year of work in Barnard College.

The professional option may be exercised in connection with the Schools of Architecture, Dental and Oral Surgery, Engineering, Law, and Medicine.

ARCHITECTURE

The School of Architecture offers a course of study leading to the degree of Bachelor of Architecture. Under normal conditions, the professional degree may be obtained in four years.

The work at Barnard should include, among other courses, a full year in English, in a foreign language (preferably French or German), in mathematics, and in economics, or history, or government, or sociology. For students not candidates for the Barnard degree, at least one year (30 points) of college work, but preferably more, is required for admission to the School of Architecture.

BUSINESS

The Graduate School of Business offers a one-year course of study leading to the degree of Master of Science for college graduates who have majored in business, a two-year course of study leading to the degree of Master of Business Administration for college graduates without previous preparation in business, and advanced studies leading to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

DENTAL AND ORAL SURGERY

The School of Dental and Oral Surgery offers a four-year course of study leading to the degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery. The preparatory work at Barnard should comprise a minimum of 12 points in chemistry, including organic chemistry, and a minimum of 6 points each in English composition and literature, physics, and zoölogy. The Admissions Committee of the School of Dental and Oral Surgery will consider carefully the entire predental record and select the most promising candidates. The minimum requirement for admission is three years (90 points) of college work.

DRAMATIC ARTS

The School of Dramatic Arts offers a course of study leading to the degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts (in Dramatic Arts). Under normal conditions, the professional degree may be obtained in three years.

The work at Barnard should include, among other courses, full year courses in English, a foreign language (preferably French or German), mathematics or a laboratory science, and courses in economics, or history, or government, or sociology. For students not candidates for the Barnard degree, at least two years (60 points) of college work is required for admission to the School of Dramatic Arts.

PAINTING AND SCULPTURE

The School of Painting and Sculpture offers a course of study leading to the degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts (in Painting or in Sculpture). Under normal conditions the professional degree may be obtained in three years.

The work at Barnard should include, among other courses, full year courses in English, a foreign language (preferably French or German), mathematics or a laboratory science, history of art and drawing. For students not candidates for the Barnard degree, at least two years (60 points) of college work is required for admission to the School of Painting and Sculpture.

ENGINEERING

The School of Engineering offers undergraduate programs in chemical, civil, electrical, industrial, mechanical, metallurgical, and mining engineering. Each of these programs is a blend of four groups of studies: first, those designed to broaden the student's general cultural education; second, those intended to give her competence in mathematics and the natural sciences; third, the basic engineering sciences such as mechanics of materials; and fourth, those by which she will become thoroughly grounded in the application of fundamental principles to her specific field of engineering.

Because of the scope of these programs the first three years of the five year program leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science are spent under the jurisdiction of Barnard College and a minimum of courses are taken in the engineering school. After successful completion of the first three years' work the student applies for admission to the School of Engineering and the remaining two years of more specialized engineering study are taken under the School of Engineering. This program is known as the "professional option" program.

Although the above plan is educationally desirable it is possible in some cases for the exceptional student to complete the prescribed subjects with two years in Barnard College and two years in the School of Engineering. This program leads to the Degree of Bachelor of Science only.

Students who are interested in the engineering program should offer at entrance additional credits in mathematics (through trigonometry), one in chemistry, and if possible, one in physics. For details of this program the student should consult the Dean of the School of Engineering.

Additional information about the engineering program and the advanced degrees offered by the School may be obtained from the Announcement of the School of Engineering.

LAW

The School of Law offers a three-year course of study leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws. The preparatory work at Barnard must be of good grade and should include satisfactory courses in English, economics, and English and United States history or the equivalent of such training. The minimum requirement for admission is three years (ninety points) of college work, but the complete college course of four years is considered advisable. Admission is on a competitive basis. All applicants for admission to the Law School are required to take a capacity test. This test will be given in many locations throughout the United States several times during the year. For further information about the test write to the Educational Testing Service, Post Office Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey.

MEDICINE

The College of Physicians and Surgeons offers a four-year course of study leading to the degree of Doctor of Medicine. The preparatory work at Barnard must be of good grade, must include the requirements prescribed by the New York Board of Regents of approved courses in English, physics, and biology, covering at least one academic year each, and approved courses in chemistry, covering at least one and one-half academic years, including an approved course in organic chemistry.

Before admission to the medical school the entire premedical record of each applicant is carefully examined in order that those who are adjudged the most promising candidates for the profession may be selected. While the minimum requirement for admission is three full academic years of college work, the complete college course of four years is considered the most desirable preparation.

INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

The purpose of the School of International Affairs is to provide a course of instruction which will equip a limited number of students for staff and administrative posts in international fields. The emphasis during the first year is upon the development of an adequate knowledge and understanding of the field generally; emphasis in the second year is upon the development of one of the following functional specialties: business affairs, economic affairs, government affairs, international administration, and legal affairs. The degree of Master of International Affairs will be awarded upon the satisfactory completion of the course.

The basic requirements for admission are: (a) a Bachelor's degree from an approved institution, (b) a distinctly superior undergraduate record, and (c) a better than average performance on the Graduate Record Examination. In addition to these basic requirements, the student must satisfy special requirements of the functional field in which she plans to specialize. Further information may be obtained from the Office of University Admissions.

THE RUSSIAN INSTITUTE

The Russian Institute of Columbia University was established in 1946 with the assistance of the Rockefeller Foundation. The two-year graduate program leading to a certificate is designed for students who wish to prepare themselves for scholarly or professional careers in the Russian field with a special emphasis in some part of that field.

Within the Institute, the candidate will be expected to follow a broad program of survey courses on Russia, but to give major emphasis to one of five Russian fields: history, economy, government and law, international relations, or the social and ideological aspects of literature. Outside the Institute, she will work simultaneously for an advanced degree in the graduate department or school that is most closely allied with the specialty she elects within the Institute.

JOURNALISM

The Graduate School of Journalism offers a one-year course leading to the degree of Master of Science. A Bachelor's degree is required for admission to this school. Undergraduate work should, wherever possible, include courses in English composition, government of the United States, history since 1914, economics, and sociology. The applicant must have completed courses totaling 96 points in liberal arts and sciences.

LIBRARY SERVICE

The School of Library Service offers a one-year course of study leading to the degree of Master of Science. A Bachelor's degree in liberal arts, acceptable scores in the Graduate Record Examination, and evidence of fitness for library work are required for admission. Undergraduate courses should include two years' study of a modern foreign language.

NURSING

Columbia University offers a three-year course at the College of Physicians and Surgeons and the Presbyterian Hospital leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science and a diploma in nursing. The preparatory work at Barnard should comprise work in chemistry, biology, psychology, and sociology. The acceptance of a candidate is based on grounds of character and health as well as on the fulfillment of the academic requirements. The minimum requirement for admission is two years (60 points) of college work but students who hold the Bachelor's degree may obtain permission to complete the course in two years and four months.

SOCIAL WORK

The New York School of Social Work, a division of Columbia University, offers a two-year course of study leading to the degree of Master of Science. The curriculum is planned to provide suitable levels of instruction in classroom, practice, and research, for students who are beginning their preparation for the field, as well as for workers already employed in social work.

A Bachelor's degree is required for admission. The undergraduate program of study must include a minimum of sixty semester hours in strictly liberal arts studies and not less than twenty semester hours in the social and biological sciences, with the emphasis in the direction of the social sciences.

The School has a limited enrollment and admission is on a selective basis. Details about the curriculum and dates for filing applications are in the Bulletin of the School which may be obtained upon request.

UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Union Theological Seminary offers courses of study leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Divinity, Master of Arts in the fields of Christian Education, of Biblical Literature, and of Comparative Religions, and Master of Sacred Music.

Since accommodations at the Seminary are limited, it is necessary to select from the total number of applicants for admission those who seem best qualified, and who in the light of their expressed purpose, personality, and record of scholarship give especial promise of usefulness in some form of Christian ministry. The requirement for admission to the courses of study at the Seminary is a Bachelor's degree including special work as indicated below for each degree:

a. Bachelor of Divinity. The preparatory work for this three-year course should include the study of philosophy, especially the history of philosophy, and courses in history, literature, economics, psychology, and at least one modern language, either French or German. A knowledge of Greek is desirable.

b. Master of Arts in the fields of Christian Education, Biblical Literature, and Comparative Religions. Preparatory work for these courses should include (1) in Christian Education, some knowledge of the Bible, of the philosophy and ethics of the Christian religion, and of either the psychology of personality or the principles of education; (2) in Biblical Literature, a working knowledge of Hebrew and Greek sufficient to proceed at once to exegesis based on the original languages of the Bible; (3) in Comparative Religions, a general knowledge of the history of religions and a working knowledge of such language as may be necessary for study in the candidate's field of special interest. Students with satisfactory preparation in these subjects may complete the work for the Master of Arts degree in one year.

c. Master of Sacred Music. Candidates for this degree must give evidence of the completion of an amount of work in music sufficient to enable them to enter with profit upon the courses in sacred music.

COURSES IN DENTAL HYGIENE

A course for Dental Hygienists is offered at the School of Dental and Oral Surgery. The course is two academic years in length leading to the Bachelor of Science degree in Dental Hygiene. The minimum requirement for admission is two years (60 points) of college work. The preparatory work at Barnard should include the satisfactory completion of the following subject requirements: English, 6 points; biological science or chemistry, 3 points; sociology or psychology, 3 points. Applicants who lack not more than eight of the sixty credits required for admission will be considered for matriculation on condition that the eight credits be earned during the summer session between the junior and senior year.

This profession is limited to women and is controlled by state law and licensing examination.

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY

The Faculty of Medicine offers a program of professional study leading to a Bachelor of Science degree in Occupational Therapy. Students who have satisfactorily completed at least two years of acceptable work in a college approved by Columbia University may register for the regular course to be completed in two years (25 calendar months). The two years in liberal arts required for admission on this basis, 60 semester credits, should include a year of college science, and at least one semester in general psychology and one semester in sociology. Electives may be chosen from such subjects as languages, science, the humanities, and the social and political sciences. In addition, candidates for admission must possess personal qualifications and aptitude suited to the practice of occupational therapy. Whenever possible, aptitude will be judged in part by a personal interview.

A graduate program of 17 months is offered for students already possessing an A.B. or B.S. degree. The Faculty of Medicine awards a Certificate upon satisfactory completion of this course.

OPTOMETRY

A special committee of the University Council administers a course of study of professional subjects in optometry. The course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science requires at least two years of academic work and two years of professional studies.

The requirement for admission to the junior class in the School of Optometry is the satisfactory completion of 60 points (excluding physical education) in an acceptable liberal arts college, distributed as follows: Group I. Required; one year each of the following—English, history or other social science subject, physics, zoölogy or physiology, and psychology; two years of mathematics through differential and integral calculus. Group II. Recommended; two years of a foreign language (German, French, or Spanish), an additional year of English and history.

PHYSICAL THERAPY

The Faculty of Medicine offers a program of training in Physical Therapy which leads to the Bachelor of Science degree. The candidate for admission must offer two years (60 semester hours) of acceptable college work, including a total of 16 semester hours of credit in psychology, physical science, and biological science.

The course of professional study is a 21-month program including two academic years of didactic instruction and clinical practice plus one summer of clinical practice.

PUBLIC HEALTH

The Faculty of Medicine offers a program of professional study at the School of Public Health leading to the Master of Science degree in Health Education, Hospital Administration, Industrial Hygiene, Biostatistics, and Parasitology. A Bachelor's degree from an approved college and evidence of satisfactory scientific training are necessary for admission. All candidates must spend at least one academic year at the school. Field work is required of those specializing in public health education or hospital administration.

CERTIFICATE OF PROFICIENCY IN SECRETARIAL STUDIES

Candidates for degrees in Columbia University and those who hold degrees from an accredited college or university may complete basic training in stenography, typewriting, and secretarial skills and upon examination obtain a Certificate of Proficiency in Secretarial Studies. Such a certificate and the training it represents will be found of value in connection with advanced study, research, and in gaining entrance upon a career in business, government, and the professions. For a descriptive pamphlet apply to the Director of University Admissions.

DEPARTMENTAL STATEMENTS

The following general regulations apply to all courses. The paragraphs on "The Program of Studies," page 23, should be carefully read.

PREREQUISITES AND CREDIT. Admission to courses depends upon completion of the prerequisites as stated for each course. When no department is named, it is to be assumed that the reference is to a numbered course in the same department. In all cases the requirements as to prerequisites for any course must be completed before the beginning of the winter or of the spring session in which the course is given. Where no prerequisite is stated and where no limitation is noted, the course may be taken for the degree by any student of the college.

No credit in points will be given for a course which is taken subsequent to the course or courses for which it is in any way a prerequisite, though not formally so announced. Courses must be taken for the credit value announced—for no more or no less.

EXAMINATION GROUPS. Courses in Barnard College are arranged in examination groups in order to avoid conflicts on the examination schedule. These groups are indicated by Arabic boldface numerals in brackets immediately following the statement of points. Group O includes courses which ordinarily do not have set examinations. No student may elect two courses in the same examination groups (except Group O) without making special arrangements through the Registrar's office for doing so. (See page 127.)

DESIGNATION OF COURSES. Courses designated by capital letters are required. Elective courses are designated by numbers, odd numbers indicating the winter session, and even numbers the spring session. A course which runs throughout the year is therefore designated by an odd number and the succeeding even number. The numbers from 1 to 99 inclusive are given to courses open only to undergraduates; the numbers from 100 to 199 inclusive are given to courses open to both undergraduates and graduates, the lowest numbers in each case being used for the introductory courses.

R courses: Odd numbers preceded by prefix "R" indicate a course repeated in the spring session that is normally given in the winter session. Even numbers preceded by prefix "R" indicate a course offered in the winter session that is normally given in the spring session.

Indivisible courses are announced with a hyphen between the numerals (e.g., History 1-2) and are regarded as full-year courses of which the first half is always assumed to be prerequisite for admission to the second half. No credit will be given for work dropped at the midyear or before the completion of the course without the written consent of the instructor and the Committee on Students' Programs.

Divisible courses are announced with a comma between the numerals (e.g., English 1, 2). Of these courses the first half may be taken separately but is ordinarily assumed to be prerequisite to the second half. Therefore, admission to the second half of a divisible course is granted only when all prerequisites have been met and the written consent of the instructor obtained.

A Roman numeral in parentheses after the hour indicates the section number (e.g., M., W., and F. at 9 (I), at 10 (II), etc.)

COURSES AT COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY. Courses marked with an asterisk (*) are Columbia courses open to Barnard students. (See page 25.)

Courses marked with a dagger (†) are given at Teachers College. Work at Teachers College mentioned herein may be pursued only by regularly enrolled students of Barnard College and only when counting toward the Barnard College degree. Certain courses not here specified as being open at Teachers College may, through the courtesy of Teachers College and with the consent of the Class Adviser, be taken by specially qualified seniors.

WITHDRAWAL OF COURSES. When an announced course has not been applied for by at least three candidates for the degree, the instructor may withdraw it.

TEXTBOOKS, etc. For further information in regard to topics, textbooks, or methods in any particular course students are referred to the instructor.

INTERDEPARTMENTAL MAJORS

AREA STUDIES AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Designed to provide a foundation for the education of students to be good citizens of a world of international coöperation, and also a foundation for the further advanced training of those who will later specialize and work actively in international affairs.

(Students desiring such advanced training may after graduation from Barnard go on to graduate study in a special field or to such professional schools as the School of International Affairs at Columbia University.)

These International Relations and Area Studies majors are open only to a limited number of unusually well-qualified students whose applications for admission are approved by the Committee in charge. Students should apply at the Registrar's office before April 15 of their sophomore year.

Freshmen looking forward to choosing one of these majors should consult the Freshman Adviser.

Committee for 1949-50: DEAN MCINTOSH, Chairman, PROFESSORS PEARDON and REYNARD and DR. MURET.

1. Foreign Areas Studies

Officer in charge for 1949-50, DR. MURET

Based on a foundation of general courses in the social sciences and the command of at least one foreign language, Foreign Areas Studies are designed to enable students to concentrate on the civilization of some one area or country of the world.

Students who wish to major in Foreign Areas Studies must pass the foreign language test (page 27) before becoming majors. They should also take in their freshman and sophomore years at least 12 points in the social sciences.

After being accepted as majors, students will be expected to specialize in the study of one country or region. For this purpose they will continue their work in language and will take such courses in the history, literature, and institutions of their chosen area as may be determined in consultation with their adviser, including at least one course either in history, in government, or in international relations. In the third and fourth years they will be required to take inter-departmental seminars in Foreign Areas Studies.

(Besides the language courses given in Barnard, courses in Russian, Chinese, Japanese, Arabic, Portuguese, and other languages are available to Barnard students at Columbia.)

Areas of concentration:

1. England, PROFESSOR ROBERTSON
2. Far East, MRS. GASTON-MAHLER
3. France, PROFESSOR HOFFHERR
4. Germany, PROFESSOR PUCKETT
5. Italy, PROFESSOR CARBONARA
6. Latin America, PROFESSOR DEL RÍO.
7. Near and Middle East, PROFESSOR CARRIÉ
8. Russia, MISS SALVIN

Lists of specific courses available in Barnard and in other parts of the University for each area can be obtained from the adviser. The following are suggested as particularly suitable in several fields:

1. ENGLAND. Government 143: (Government of England) and Government 144: (Governments of the British Dominions), PROFESSOR PEARDON. History 139-140: (European Thought and Culture in the Nineteenth Century), PROFESSOR BARZUN.
2. FAR EAST. Fine Arts 191, 192: (The Art of Asia), MRS. GASTON-MAHLER. History 191-192: (Modern History of the Far East), PROFESSOR GARDNER. History 193-194: (History of Chinese Civilization), PROFESSOR GOODRICH. History 195: (History of Japan and Japanese Civilization), SIR GEORGE SAN-SOM. History 297A-298A: (History of Japanese Religion), MR. TSUNODA. History 297B-298B: (History of Japanese Thought), MR. TSUNODA.
5. ITALY. Italian 101: (A Survey of the History of Italian Literature), PROFESSOR PREZZOLINI.
6. LATIN AMERICA. History 187: (Latin American History), PROFESSOR TANNENBAUM.
8. RUSSIA. Slavic Philology 101: (Slavic Peoples, Their Languages and Civilization), PROFESSOR JAKOBSON. Russian 108: (Russian Literature of the Eighteenth Century), PROFESSOR MANNING. Russian 133: (Russian Institute, Soviet Russian Literature), PROFESSOR SIMMONS. Russian 134: (Russian Institute, The Drama and Theater of Soviet Russia), PROFESSOR SIMMONS. History 147: (Russia in the Imperial Age), PROFESSOR ROBINSON. History 148: (The Russian Revolution), PROFESSOR ROBINSON.

Courses offered at Barnard:

FOREIGN AREAS STUDIES 41-42. Junior Seminar in Foreign Areas Studies. A general survey of physical, economic, cultural, social, and political aspects of foreign areas. Weekly oral reports by each student in her field of concentration. Field trips. Meetings and discussion with members of several departments. Full-year course. Open only to majors in Foreign Areas Studies. Tu., 3-5. 4 points.

Interdepartmental course. Officer in charge, DR. MURET.

FOREIGN AREAS STUDIES 51-52. Senior Seminar in Foreign Areas Studies. Special studies and reports by each member of the group on selected aspects of her area of concentration. Group discussion. Field trips. Meetings with experts on subjects touching foreign areas. Full-year course. Open only to seniors who are majors in Foreign Areas Studies. W., 3-5. 6 points. [0]

Interdepartmental course. Officer in charge, DR. MURET.

II. International Relations

OFFICER IN CHARGE FOR 1949-50, MISS SALVIN

Designed for those students who, with a special interest in the social sciences, wish to concentrate on the structure, forces, and problems of modern international society.

Students who wish to major in International Relations should take the following courses in their freshman and sophomore years: Economics 1, 2; History 1-2; a course in Geography. They are expected to pass the foreign language test normally by the end of the sophomore year and are advised to continue the study of foreign languages throughout their college course whenever that is possible.

In the junior and senior years, majors in International Relations will be expected to take courses in international politics, international trade and finance, and in recent history. In the senior year, also, they will be required to take an interdepartmental seminar.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS 81-82. Senior seminar in International Relations. Individual and group analysis of important problems and trends in the field of international relations.

Open only to senior majors in International Relations.

INTERDEPARTMENTAL COURSES

AMERICA AND THE FUTURE

PHILOSOPHY 91, 92. SCHEMES FOR A BETTER WORLD—A BACKWARD LOOK OVER THE UTOPIAN IDEALS OF THE PAST, AN APPRAISAL OF PLANS FOR THE POST-WAR WORLD AND A TAKING STOCK OF THE MEANS TO AN ULTIMATE ACHIEVEMENT OF THE GOOD LIFE IN THE MORE DISTANT FUTURE. The required reading will include the more important Utopias from Plato to the present time supplemented by certain great satires on man and society and works in the field of the social sciences. Class meetings will be devoted in part to a consideration of the texts and in part to symposia in which members of the staff and guest speakers will discuss with one another and with the students the major difficulties that lie in the way of attaining world peace, prosperity, and happiness. In place of a final examination each student will write a serious term paper in which, within the frame of her own conception of the good life, she will treat of that aspect of the problem which she is best equipped to handle.

Open to juniors and seniors and specially qualified sophomores on written permission of the department. The course may count toward a major in philosophy and in other subjects with the consent of the departments concerned. W., 3-5. 4 or 6 points in Group III. [0]

PROFESSORS PARKHURST and RICH with the collaboration of PROFESSOR SMITH and guest speakers.

Form and content of tradition: the proverb, riddle, folk tale, myth, fairy tale, romance, adventure, novel, verse, and song. Types of character and plot. Mythological styles defined. This course aims to acquaint students with valuable material which is not generally known, and to consider mythological theories.

Open to juniors and seniors. 3 points in Group I. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR REICHARD.

[108. THE ART OF PRIMITIVE MAN. Control of technique; geometrical and representative design. Art of various groups defined. A study of proportion, of design, line and mass; of rhythm, symmetry, and balance; of color. The attitude of the artist and of the social group. Theories of art.

Open to juniors and seniors. 3 points in Group I. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR REICHARD.

GRADUATE COURSES

Certain graduate courses given at Columbia University are open to specially qualified seniors with the consent of the department and the Committee on Students' Programs of Barnard College. A description of these courses will be found in the Announcement of the Faculty of Political Science.

ARCHAEOLOGY

See Fine Arts and Archaeology and Greek and Latin

ASTRONOMY

JAN SCHILT, Ph.D., Rutherford Professor of Astronomy,
Executive Officer

*1-2. GENERAL ASTRONOMY. Introductory course. 3 points each session.

PROFESSOR SCHILT.

Tu. and Th. at 11. 208 Pupin.

Observatory work: Hours to be arranged.

Astronomy 1 deals with the celestial sphere and the solar system; Astronomy 2 gives an introduction to the properties of the stars and the structure of the sidereal universe.

GRADUATE COURSES

Certain graduate courses given at Columbia University are open with the consent of the department and the Committee on Students' Programs of Barnard College to specially qualified seniors. A description of these courses will be found in the Announcement of the Faculty of Pure Science. Students wishing to continue work in astronomy should note the prerequisites for the advanced courses and plan their work accordingly.

BOTANY

CORNELIA L. CAREY, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Botany,

DONALD D. RITCHIE, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Botany

VICTOR R. LARSEN, JR., M.A., Instructor in Botany

LEONIE JANE NESTLER, A.B., Assistant in Botany

JOAN DALY, A.B., Assistant in Botany

A major in botany. Students majoring in botany will be required to take: Botany. Courses 51-52, 53-54 or 55-56 and such other courses, subject to the approval of the department, as meet the particular needs and purposes of each student. Only one of the two courses, 57 and 60, may be counted toward a major.

Other fields. Other courses according to the special needs of the student.

Major students are permitted to use a limited space in the greenhouse for practical work in plant propagation.

51-52. GENERAL BOTANY. Full-year course.

A portion of the laboratory work is conducted in the greenhouse and occasional field trips are required.

Lectures: Tu. and Th. at 9 and Th. at 1. Laboratory (4 hours): Tu. and Th., 10-12 or 2-4, or, if more than 60 students elect the course, M. and W., 1-3. 10 points. [6]

PROFESSOR CAREY, MR. LARSEN, and MISS NESTLER.

51a-52a. GENERAL BOTANY. Lectures identical with those of 51-52. No laboratory work. Full-year course.

To follow or parallel: a laboratory science. Tu. and Th. at 9 and Th. at 1. 6 points in Group II. [6]

PROFESSOR CAREY and STAFF.

[53-54. GENERAL MORPHOLOGY OF PLANTS. Full-year course.

Prerequisite, Course 51-52 or the equivalent. Occasional field trips are required. 8 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

MR. LARSEN.

55-56. STRUCTURE AND RELATIONSHIPS OF FLOWERING PLANTS. Full-year course.

Prerequisite, Course 51-52 or the equivalent. Occasional field trips are required. M. and W. at 11. Laboratory (4 hours): M. and W., 1-3. 8 points. [3]

PROFESSOR RITCHIE.

57. THE HISTORY AND USES OF PLANTS. The place of plants in the biological picture; their utilization and significance to man.

This course does not satisfy the requirement of a laboratory science. Lectures: M. and W. at 9. Demonstrations, conferences, and trips: Th., 2-4. 3 points. [1]

MR. LARSEN.

[58. GENERAL PLANT PHYSIOLOGY.

Prerequisite, Course 51-52. 5 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR CAREY.

59. GENETICS. Mendelian principles of heredity, sex determination and differentiation, genetic control of development.

Prerequisite, a year of college work in either botany or zoölogy except on written permission of the instructor. Lectures: M. and W. at 3. Laboratory or conference (4 hours): M. and W., 4-5, F., 3-5. 4 points. [10]

PROFESSOR RITCHIE.

60. PLANT CULTURE. Theoretical discussions and practical work on plant propagation.

No previous knowledge of botany is required. This course does not satisfy the requirement of a laboratory science. Open only on written permission of the instructor. Lecture: M. at 4. Laboratory (4 hours): M., 3-4, F., 1-4. 3 points. [10]

PROFESSOR RITCHIE.

62. MICROTECHNIQUE. Lecture and laboratory work in the theory and practice of fixing, sectioning, and staining plant material.

Prerequisite, Botany 51-52. Lecture: M. at 11. Laboratory (4 hours): M. and W., 1-3. 3 points. [3]

MR. LARSEN.

64. GENERAL BACTERIOLOGY.

Open only to science majors of junior or senior standing. Lectures: Tu. and Th. at 10. Laboratory (6 hours): to be arranged, preferably on Tu. and Th., 2-5. 5 points. [7]

PROFESSOR CAREY and MISS DALY.

[68. CYTOLOGY. Study of the nucleus and chromosomes, their structure and behavior considered in relation to taxonomic and genetic problems. Emphasis in the laboratory will be upon rapid smear techniques and photomicrography.

Prerequisite, Botany 59. Open to qualified juniors and seniors. 5 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR RITCHIE.

151-152. BACTERIA AND FERMENT FUNGI. Winter Session: General laboratory technique in bacteriology, standard methods of water analysis. Lectures will include the chemistry of bacteria.

Spring Session: Pathogenic forms, foods, standard methods of milk and water analysis. Lectures will include chemistry of bacteria and immunity.

Prerequisite, at least a year of college work in either botany or zoölogy. Preceding or parallel, organic chemistry. Open only to properly qualified juniors and seniors. Lectures: M. and W. at 1. Laboratory (6 hours): M. and W., 9-12 or 2-5, or hours to be arranged. 10 points. [4]

PROFESSOR CAREY and MISS DALY.

160. PHYSIOLOGICAL MICROBIOLOGY. General physiology of micro-organisms. Reading and reports on contemporary literature. Technique and cultivation of various groups adapted to the needs of students.

Open only on written permission of the instructor. Lectures (2 hours) and laboratory (4 to 6 hours) to be arranged. 3, 4, or 5 points.

PROFESSOR CAREY.

161, 162. ADVANCED MORPHOLOGY AND PHYSIOLOGY. Work will be planned to suit the needs of the students after consultation with instructors.

This course may be taken in successive years. Hours and credit by arrangement. [0]

CHEMISTRY

<sup>1</sup>HELEN R. DOWNES, Ph.D., (Cantab.), Professor of Chemistry,

EDWARD J. KING, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Chemistry

EMMA D. STECHER, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Chemistry

VIRGINIA C. LOWMAN, Ph.D., Instructor in Chemistry

MARTHA R. LUMPKIN, A.M., Instructor in Chemistry

A major in chemistry. Students majoring in chemistry will be required to take:

Chemistry. Course 1-2 or 5-6; 63, 64; 41-42 and 99. Courses 105, 106, 107 and 108 are strongly advised.

Other fields. Physics—a year's work in general physics. Mathematics 1 and 22. A course in calculus is advised. A reading knowledge of German to be acquired by the beginning of the third year's work. A reading knowledge of French is also advised.

1-2. GENERAL INORGANIC CHEMISTRY. Full-year course (primarily for freshmen).

Lectures: Tu. and Th. at 10 and a third hour, S. at 10 or F. at 1. Laboratory: Tu., W., or Th., 2-4:30. 8 points. [7]

PROFESSOR DOWNES, MISS LUMPKIN, and MISS KALECHSTEIN.

1a-2a. GENERAL INORGANIC CHEMISTRY. Lectures identical with those of 1-2. No laboratory work. Full-year course.

Prerequisite, preceding or parallel: a laboratory science. Tu. and Th. at 10 and F. at 1. 6 points. [7]

PROFESSOR DOWNES and MISS LUMPKIN.

5-6. GENERAL INORGANIC CHEMISTRY. This course is intended for students whose high school chemistry fits them for a more advanced treatment of inorganic chemistry than is given in Course 1-2. A qualifying test will be given at beginning of term to students electing this course.

Lectures: Tu. and Th. at 11 and F. at 1. Laboratory: M., 2-4:30. 8 points. [8]

PROFESSOR KING, MISS LUMPKIN, and MISS BROWN.

63. QUALITATIVE ANALYSIS.

Prerequisite, Course 1-2 or 5-6. Preceding or parallel, Mathematics 1 and 22. Laboratory deposit, $10. Lectures: M., W., and F. at 10. Laboratory (6 hours): M. and W., 1-4 or Tu. and Th., 2-5. 6 points. [2]

MRS. LOWMAN.

64. QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS.

Prerequisite, Course 63. Laboratory deposit, $10. Lectures: M. and W. at 10. Laboratory (8 hours): M. and W., 1-5 or Tu. and Th., 2-6. 6 points. [2]

MRS. LOWMAN.

[66. QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS, SPECIAL COURSE.

Prerequisite, Course 1-2 or 5-6. Laboratory deposit, $12.50. This course is intended for students who are not chemistry majors. 6 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

MRS. LOWMAN.

[67, 68. QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS, ADVANCED COURSE.

Prerequisite, Course 63, 64. Laboratory deposit, $12.50 each session. This course is designed to meet the needs of individual students and will be given for a class of five or more. 8 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

MRS. LOWMAN.

41-42. ORGANIC CHEMISTRY. Full-year course.

Prerequisite, Course 1-2 or 5-6 and, except on written permission of the department, Courses 63, 64. Laboratory deposit, $12.50 each session. Lectures: M., W., and F. at 9. Laboratory (a minimum of 6 hours): Tu., 2-5 and Th., 1-4 or Tu. and Th., 9-12. A demonstration hour, Th. at 1, will frequently be substituted for one laboratory hour. 12 points. [1]

PROFESSOR STECHER and MISS HOLLJES.

41a. ORGANIC CHEMISTRY, SHORT COURSE.

Prerequisite, Course 1-2 or 5-6. Laboratory deposit, $15. This course will be given for a class of five or more. Lectures: M., W., and F. at 9. Laboratory (a minimum of 6 hours): M. and W., 2-5. A demonstration hour, Th. at 1, will frequently be substituted for one laboratory hour. 6 points. [1]

PROFESSOR DOWNES and MISS BROWN.

99. CONFERENCES IN CHEMISTRY. Readings and discussion of selected topics.

Required of all seniors. F., 3-5. 2 points.

PROFESSOR KING.

105, 106. PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY. A course in chemical principles covering the states of matter and the phase rule; electrochemistry; chemical kinetics; elementary thermodynamics and chemical equilibrium.

Except by special permission, chemistry majors must elect Courses 107, 108 parallel.

Prerequisite, Courses 1-2 or 5-6; Physics 3-4 and Mathematics 31-32. Lectures: M., W., and F. at 10. 6 points. [2]

PROFESSOR KING.

107, 108. PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY LABORATORY. Chemistry majors must take this course parallel with 105, 106 except by special permission.

Prerequisite, Courses 63, 64; 105, 106 (parallel); Physics 3-4 and Mathematics 31-32. Laboratory deposit, $15 each session. Laboratory (a minimum of 6 hours): Tu. and Th., 2-5. 6 points. [0]

PROFESSOR KING.

145, 146. ORGANIC CHEMISTRY, ADVANCED COURSE.

Prerequisite, Courses 1-2 or 5-6, 63, 64, 41-42. Laboratory deposit, $15 each session. Lectures: M., W., and F. at 1. Laboratory (a minimum of 6 hours): Tu. and Th., 2-5. 12 points. [4]

PROFESSOR STECHER.

[150. PHYSIOLOGICAL CHEMISTRY.

Prerequisite, Courses 63, 64, 41-42; Zoölogy 1-2. Zoölogy 98 is strongly recommended as a parallel course. Laboratory deposit, $15. 6 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR DOWNES.

137, 138. PROBLEMS IN CHEMISTRY. Lectures, conferences, or laboratory work on advanced topics in organic or inorganic chemistry, or microanalysis.

Open only to advanced students. Laboratory deposit, $15 each session. Hours and credit by arrangement.

CHINESE

**Chinese 1-2. Elementary Chinese. PROFESSOR GOODRICH.*

**Chinese 3-4. Second year Chinese. PROFESSOR GOODRICH.*

**Chinese, 105-106. Classical Chinese. PROFESSOR WANG.*

These and other courses in Chinese language, history, and culture are open to qualified Barnard students in special cases. A description of these courses will be found in the Announcement of the Faculty of Philosophy.

CLASSICAL CIVILIZATION

ECONOMICS

ELIZABETH FAULKNER BAKER, Ph.D., Professor of Economics,

RAYMOND J. SAULNIER, Ph.D., Professor of Economics

CLARA ELIOT, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Economics

ROBERT LEKACHMAN, M.A., Instructor in Economics

JANET R. SUNDELSON, M.A., Instructor in Economics

EDITH GREEN SEVERO, M.A., Instructor in Economics

A major in economics. Students majoring in economics will be required to take:

Economics 1, 2, 13 or 14, 17 or R17, and 27 or 27 and 28.

Other social sciences. In view of the essential unity of the social sciences every student majoring in economics is required to take courses amounting to 12 points in two of the following departments, as selected in conference with her adviser: anthropology, geography, government, history, philosophy, psychology, religion, sociology.

See also Other Interdepartmental Offerings, page 41.

See also American Civilization, page 42.

See also Foreign Area Studies, page 39.

See also International Relations, page 41.

1, 2. INTRODUCTORY ECONOMICS. Winter Session: The functions of an economic system; economic institutions and how they work, corporations, the stock market. Economic principles as a guide to policy under competition and monopoly. Private enterprise and the rôle of the government in policing, directing, or stimulating the economy; the record of our economy in achieving "stability," "full employment," "efficiency in the use of resources," and "equity in the distribution of income." Spring Session: Labor problems, social security, the monetary and banking system, business cycles. Economic analysis applied to problems of foreign trade, taxation, and fiscal policy, public ownership and economic planning. Private enterprise as compared to some of its modifications or alternatives ("planned economy," Socialism, Communism, Fascism).

Open to students of all classes. Course 1 is prerequisite for Course 2. For all except freshmen: M., W., and F. at 10 (I), at 2 (II), Tu. and Th. at 9 and Th. at 3 (III); for freshmen and sophomores, M., W., and F. at 9 (IV). Each section should be limited to 30 students. 6 points. [18]

PROFESSORS BAKER AND SAULNIER, MR. LEKACHMAN, and MRS. SEVERO.

[3. ECONOMIC PROBLEMS OF THE CONSUMER. How well does our economic order serve us as consumers? Can standards of living be raised? Special problems such as consumer credit, budgeting, standards and grade labeling, housing, medical care, advertising, style and fashion, "fair price" laws, lessons of price-control and rationing. Protection of the consumer by the government, by consumer organizations. The coöperative movement.

2 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR ELIOT.

13, 14. DEVELOPMENT OF CAPITALIST INSTITUTIONS. A survey of the development of our present economic society, with special emphasis on western Europe and on the United States. Winter Session: The genesis of capitalist forms in ancient and medieval Europe. Technological and economic changes in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. The development of those financial institutions, forms of business enterprise, and techniques of private and governmental control characteristic of capitalism in twentieth-century Europe. Spring Session: The development of the American economy from colonial times. Early American mercantile capitalism. Industrial and finance capitalism in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Structural changes in the economy: types of production, employment, and industrial organization. The impact of two world wars on the American economy.

Open to all except freshmen. Tu. and Th. at 11 and Th. at 3. 6 points. [8]

MRS. SUNDELSON and MRS. SEVERO.

15. FISCAL POLICY AND ECONOMIC PLANNING. The economics of planning, with reference to the experience of particular countries. The rôle of fiscal policy in relation to full employment, inflation, and reducing inequality in the distribution of national income and wealth. Critical analysis of our present tax, expenditure, and debt systems, including a discussion of federal, state, and local fiscal relations. Analysis of current fiscal proposals.

Prerequisite, Course 1 or the equivalent. M., W., and F. at 9. 3 points. [1]

MRS. SEVERO.

16. INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC POLICY. International monetary and trade problems. The mechanism and theory of international exchange. The breakdown of the international trading system, with particular reference to the position of the United States and Britain in the world economy. Current experiments in international economic planning: the International Monetary Fund and the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development; the International Trade Organization; the Marshall Plan.

Prerequisite, Course 1 or the equivalent. M., W., and F. at 9. 3 points. [1]

MRS. SEVERO.

17 (or R17). INTRODUCTION TO STATISTICAL ANALYSIS. The gathering of statistical data; tabulation; graphic presentation; simpler methods of summarization and comparison. The normal curve, sampling, and unreliability. Statistical fallacies. Illustrations from various sciences. Possibilities and limitations of the statistical method.

Open to all except freshmen. 3 points.

Winter Session: Tu. and Th. at 10 and a laboratory hour to be arranged.

Spring Session: M. and W. at 1 and a laboratory hour to be arranged.

PROFESSOR ELIOT.

18. STATISTICAL ANALYSIS. Index numbers; analysis of time-series; correlation; analysis of variance.

Prerequisite, Course 17 (or R17) or the equivalent. (Course 18 counts in Group II unless taken as part of a major in economics or sociology, in which case it may count toward that major, and the 14-point requirement in Group II must be satisfied in other subjects.) Tu. and Th. at 10 and a laboratory hour to be arranged. 3 points. [7]

PROFESSOR ELIOT.

19. LABOR ECONOMICS AND LABOR PROBLEMS. An introduction to the analysis of the problems of labor in the American private-enterprise system: composition of the labor force; theories of unemployment and of a full-employment national income; wage theory, the minimum wage, the guaranteed annual wage; "scientific" wage determination, job analysis and job evaluation; "optimum" hours of work; the economic significance of social security. Have trade unions a socially desirable function?

Prerequisite, Course 1. This course is recommended for students interested in personnel work. M., W., and F. at 10. 3 points. [2]

PROFESSOR BAKER.

20. LABOR UNIONISM AND LABOR RELATIONS. Attempts of British and American organized labor to improve the social and economic status of working people. American union structure and union government; theory of collective bargaining; the nature of the trade agreement; labor disputes and the machinery for their settlement; labor law and the courts. The impact of the Taft-Hartley Act upon labor-management relations. What is the way toward industrial peace?

Prerequisite, Course 1 and preferably Course 19 or the equivalent. This course is recommended for students interested in personnel work and is prerequisite to Course 25. M., W., and F. at 10. 3 points. [2]

PROFESSOR BAKER.

[21. CORPORATION FINANCE AND INVESTMENT. An introduction to the development and present nature of financial and business organization with respect to the investor, the worker, the consumer, and the economy as a whole. The nature and function of corporate securities in capital formation, promotion, and capitalization. The meaning and uses of financial statements. The principles and practices of investment are studied in connection with a class project which includes following the financial sections of the newspapers and observing the attempt of the Securities and Exchange Commission to protect investors.

Prerequisite, Course 1. Given in alternate years. 3 points. Not given in 1949-50. See Course 203, 204 for 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR BAKER.

22. BUSINESS ENTERPRISE AND PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION. The business organization as a going concern dealing with its problems of marketing, production, finance, personnel and labor-management relations. The rôle of the government in the regulation of business enterprise on behalf of stockholders and bondholders, workers, and consumers.

Prerequisite, Course 1. This course is recommended for students interested in personnel work. Given in alternate years. M., W., and F. at 11. 3 points. [3]

PROFESSOR BAKER.

25. INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS AND PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION. A study of labor-management relations under the impact of technological change, in theory and in practice. The union challenge to management control. The changing position of the foreman. The rôle of the government in settling grievances and disputes. The outlook for mutual survival of organized labor and organized management in the dilemma between progress and security.

Each student will have a supervised project.

Prerequisite, Course 20, preferably also Course 19. Th., 4-6. 3 points.

PROFESSOR BAKER.

27. DEVELOPMENT OF ECONOMIC THOUGHT. A systematic presentation of the development of economic thought beginning with Smith, continuing with Ricardo, Malthus, and Mill and culminating in the work of Marshall in England and J. B. Clark in this country. There will be an attempt to relate the work of each man to the persistent problems of his time. Considerable attention will also be devoted to the intellectual reaction to classical theory represented by Marx and Veblen. Readings will be assigned in original texts. This course will be a prerequisite for Course 28.

Prerequisite, Course 1. Tu. and Th. at 10; Tu. at 2. 3 points. [7]

MR. LEKACHMAN.

28. ECONOMIC ANALYSIS. Building upon the historical basis of earlier economic thought, this course will include the major topics of current economic theory: the neo-classical explanations of value, distribution, and competitive price; Chamberlin's theory of monopolistic competition; and the modern theory of demand. This part of the semester's work will be devoted largely to an analysis of the individual firm and industry. The second part will consider the Keynesian theory of employment, both as a tool of economic analysis and as a basis for governmental policy. Current problems will be stressed.

Prerequisites, Courses 1, 2, 27. Tu. and Th. at 10; Tu. at 2. 3 points. [7]

MR. LEKACHMAN.

29, 30. ECONOMIC FLUCTUATIONS. A descriptive treatment of fluctuations in modern industrial society. Winter Session: Examination of the theories of Mitchell and Clark and their public policy implications. Spring Session: Discussion of the work of Keynes and Schumpeter, among others, and analysis of measures to control fluctuations and their harmful effects upon the community.

Prerequisite, Courses 1, 2. Tu. at 3 and Th., 1-3. 6 points. [9]

MR. LEKACHMAN.

51, 52. ECONOMICS SEMINAR.

Open to senior majors. Reading, reports, and discussion. W., 3-5. 6 points. [0]

PROFESSOR SAULNIER in 1949-50.

61, 62. STUDIES IN ECONOMICS. Selected topics and books, and/or a term paper. The student will select her instructor according to the subject of her special interest.

This course may be taken only in connection with some other course in economics. 2 points.

MEMBERS OF THE DEPARTMENT.

*203, 204. PROBLEMS IN CORPORATION FINANCE. A course dealing mainly with those aspects of the financing of large corporations that are important in the functioning of our economy. Among the topics that may be covered are: the divorce of control from security ownership; the use of different types of securities as instruments of finance; internal financing by reserve accruals and by retention of net income; mergers, consolidations, and holding-company affiliations; the marketing of securities through banking syndicates; the influence of taxation on corporate policy; reorganization under the Federal Bankruptcy Act.

Course 203 is prerequisite for Course 204. Tu., 4-6, third hour for Barnard students to be arranged. 513 Business. 6 points.

PROFESSOR SAULNIER and MR. JOSEPH L. WEINER.

[123-124. FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS. A study of the functioning of the principal public and private agencies comprising the financial system of the United States, and of corporate financial policies, from the viewpoint of their relation to the flow of money payments and the process of capital formation.

Open to seniors. Prerequisite, Course 1, 2 and at least two other courses in economics. 6 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR SAULNIER.

GRADUATE COURSES

Certain graduate courses given at Columbia University are open with the consent of the department and the Committee on Students' Programs of Barnard College to specially qualified seniors. A description of these courses will be found in the Announcement of the Faculty of Political Science. The following are specially recommended as suitable for Barnard seniors:

**Economics 289. The Regulation of Public Utilities. DR. BARNES. 3 points. F., 4-6. School of Business.*

**Statistics 201-202. Economic Statistics. PROFESSOR MILLS. 6 points.*

COLUMBIA COLLEGE COURSES

**Statistics 3-4. Statistical Methods and Their Applications. PROFESSOR CROXTON. 6 points.*

EDUCATION

Courses in education will not satisfy the 14-point requirement in any group.

†51a, 52a. PROBLEMS OF AMERICAN EDUCATION. Winter Session: The goals and major trends in American education. Spring Session: Problems of teaching and the curriculum. Tu., 1-4. 6 points.

PROFESSOR EVANS and MISS LAWLER.

Students interested in teaching should, insofar as possible, select in the senior year subject-matter courses which will provide a background for their major teaching field, and should take in addition a year of graduate work in Teachers College. It is desirable to consult departmental advisers in Teachers College during the junior year.

Courses in Teachers College, other than the two mentioned above and a few provided for students in nursing education, are on the graduate level and come under the regulations pertaining to the election of courses in the graduate faculties of the University. (See pages 25 and 26.)

GLORIA MANDEVILLE, A.M., Lecturer in English

A major in English. Every student graduated as a major in English is expected to be skilled in the common arts of reading, writing, and speaking. On the college level this implies that the graduate has read and can read with understanding a considerable number of the principal authors of English literature, ancient and modern. This learning in literature must be accompanied by some knowledge of the English language from an analytical or historical point of view. Further, English majors are asked to devote particular attention to a special field, such as American literature or a period of English literature, or drama, writing, or speech. A list of fields and advisers may be obtained from the department office. See Courses 91, 92 and 93, 94.

The major examination is divided into three parts: (I) Chaucer, Shakespeare, Milton, and selected authors, English and American, of the eighteenth, nineteenth, and twentieth centuries; (II) the English language, including translation of Anglo-Saxon or Middle English; (III) work in a special field. Parts I and II constitute a general examination which is identical for all majors in English and presupposes at least 18 points of appropriate courses. Part III is a special examination or requirement which varies according to the field of particular interest. English majors in literature write an examination which is usually a critical essay. Not later than the beginning of the senior year, they should consult with their advisers and elect some 15 points of related courses, not necessarily English courses, to prepare for this special examination. English majors in writing must have an average grade of at least B in writing courses totaling 18 points; they fulfill Part III by submitting a satisfactory example of their work. English majors in speech must have an average grade of at least B in speech courses totaling 18 points, and take as Part III an oral examination in phonetics and the mechanics of voice. N.B. All students who have a grade of A, B, or C in Course 43 or 44 may be excused from Part II.

INTRODUCTORY COURSE

A1-A2. READING, WRITING, AND SPEAKING. An approach to the literary skills through intensive reading, regular assignments in composition, and discussion; individual conferences with the instructor each week. In 1949-50 one half of the sections will center on a study of Shakespeare, the other half on important American books. Full-year course.

*Prescribed for freshmen and prerequisite for any other course except Courses 20, 21-22, 27, 28, which are recommended to be taken parallel to A1-A2. Students not thoroughly accustomed to the use of English should consult PROFESSOR KOUWENHOVEN or PROFESSOR HOOK before registering for this course. 8 points: Lecture, Th. at 1 and class meetings, M., W., and F. at 11 (III). This course is required of students majoring in French and may be counted toward the major. [14]

Or 6 points: Class meetings only, M., W., and F. at 9 (I) and at 10 (II), with modified requirements in reading and composition. Students who may subsequently wish to count the 6 points toward a French major may do so by additional work equivalent to 2 extra points.

PROFESSOR DE WYZEWA and MRS. BAILEY.

[13, 14. THE REGIONAL FRENCH NOVEL. A study of the life and art of several French provinces based on recent novels.

Open to juniors, seniors, and qualified sophomores on written permission of the instructor. Limited to 15 students. 4 or 6 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

MISS BENNETT.

21-22. FRENCH LITERATURE IN THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY. A study of the most significant works of the principal writers of the period with special emphasis on the French Classical Drama. Full-year course.

M., W., and F. at 10. 6 or 8 points. [2]

PROFESSOR HOFFHERR.

23, 24. FRENCH LITERATURE IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY. Characteristic works of poetry, the theatre, and the novel. The main currents of French thought in the XIXth century and their repercussion in the early XXth century.

Open to juniors and seniors on written permission of the instructor.

M., W., and F. at 9. 6 or 8 points. [1]

PROFESSOR BARATIN.

25, 26. HISTORY OF THE FRENCH NOVEL. A study of the development of French culture, thought, ideals, and literary technique as reflected in the most representative novels of each period, from the Middle Ages to the present.

Open to juniors, seniors and qualified sophomores on written permission of the instructor.

M., W., and F. at 1. 6 points. [4]

PROFESSOR DE WYZEWA.

[27, 28. HISTORY OF THE FRENCH DRAMA. General survey of the development of the French drama from its origin to the present time; the most representative plays of the different periods.

4 or 6 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR HOFFHERR.

[31, 32. THE RENAISSANCE IN FRANCE. Readings illustrative of humanism, neo-platonism, and the "new learning" in science and the arts. A study of the international aspects of intellectual life during the Renaissance.

Open to juniors and seniors. 6 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

33, 34. HISTORY OF FRENCH CIVILIZATION. General survey of the development of French civilization from the Roman conquest to the Revolution; the political, artistic, literary, and scientific activities of the French people in the formation of their national life and their contribution to human progress.

Open to juniors, seniors, and qualified sophomores, and to freshmen on written permission of the instructor. M. and W. at 11. 4 or 6 points. [3]

PROFESSOR HOFFHERR.

[34a. HISTORY OF FRENCH CIVILIZATION FROM THE REVOLUTION TO MODERN TIMES. The political, artistic, literary, and scientific activities of the French people in the formation of their national life and their contribution to human progress.

Prerequisite, Course 33, 34 or the equivalent. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR MESNARD.

[35, 36. FRENCH LITERATURE IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. The chief essayists, novelists, and dramatists of the period in their most significant works and letters.

Prerequisite, Course 21-22 or the written permission of the department. 6 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR DE WYZEWA.

39-40. SPECIAL READING SEMINAR. Intended primarily for French majors. Students will be given a program of supervised reading, helping them to coördinate their work in other French courses. Discussions and reports.

M. and W. at 2. 4 points. [5]

PROFESSOR BARATIN and MISS BENNETT.

[125. CONTEMPORARY FRENCH LITERATURE. Three predecessors of contemporary French poetry: Gérard de Nerval, Ch. Baudelaire, and A. Rimbaud. Analysis of significant works.

Open to qualified seniors on written permission of the instructor. 3 or 4 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

GRADUATE COURSES

Certain graduate courses given at Columbia University are open with the consent of the department and the Committee on Students' Programs of Barnard College to specially qualified seniors. A description of these courses will be found in the Announcement of the Faculty of Philosophy.

GEOLOGY AND GEOGRAPHY

HENRY S. SHARP, Ph.D., Professor of Geology,
Executive officer

FLORRIE HOLZWASSER, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Geology
WILLIAM F. GOODWIN, JR., M.A., Instructor in Geography

A major in geology. Students majoring in geology may not count courses in geography toward the 28 points required in their major field. Advanced courses in geology and courses in other fields of science must be arranged in consultation with the major department and may vary somewhat in accordance with the interest and purpose of the student. Majors in geology are urged to take a well-balanced program in the humanities and by their senior year to take a field course such as Geology 5179—Geology of the Rocky Mountains—offered in Wyoming each summer by Columbia University.

A major in geography. Students majoring in geography are required to take Geology 1, 2, 27, 28; courses in geography and in the related fields of anthropology, economics, and history are to be selected after consultation with the major department and may vary somewhat in accordance with the interests and purpose of the student.

GEOGRAPHY

1-2. ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY. Consideration of man's geographic background—weather, climate, oceans, and landforms; his adaptation to this background and his utilization of natural resources; study of maps and map projections. Intended to be of use to students of history, economics, and sociology, and of earth sciences.

Tu. and Th. at 9 and Th. at 1. 6 points in Group II or III. [6]

PROFESSOR HOLZWASSER.

3. THE GEOGRAPHY OF SOUTH AMERICA. A study of the position, climate, relief, and natural resources of the continent and its constituent countries. This course should be of value to students of Spanish and of South American history and culture.

M., W., and F. at 10. 3 points in Group II or III. [2]

PROFESSOR HOLZWASSER.

[5. THE PHYSICAL AND ECONOMIC STRUCTURE OF EUROPE. A study is made of the position, climate, relief, and natural resources of the continent and the economic development of the constituent countries. The geographic basis of the division of Germany and other problems are considered. This course is planned to give the factual geographic background of Europe and should prove of value to students of European history and government. 3 points in Group II or III. Given in alternate years. Not given in 1949-50.]

MR. GOODWIN.

7. PRINCIPLES OF POLITICAL GEOGRAPHY. A study of the general principles of political geography, together with a careful examination of selected critical countries and areas of the world such as Germany, China, Japan, and Palestine.

M., W., and F. at 11. 3 points in group II or III [3]

MR. GOODWIN.

10. METEOROLOGY. The fundamentals of modern meteorology: the atmosphere, its composition, height, and properties; temperature, pressure, humidity, and related weather elements; atmospheric circulation; climates of the earth. Special emphasis upon problems and regions of present importance.

3 points in Group II. M., W., and F. at 10. [2]

PROFESSOR HOLZWASSER.

12. NATURAL RESOURCES AND THEIR CONSERVATION. The availability, use, and misuse of our natural resources together with actual and possible conservation methods are investigated. The cultural, social, and economic implications of our resource policy are dealt with, and the discussion of the value of the T.V.A., Soil Conservation Service, and the Strategic Mineral Program are an important part of the course.

M., W., and F. at 11. 3 points in Group II or III. [3]

MR. GOODWIN.

15, 16. REGIONAL ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY OF NORTH AMERICA. A study of the relief, natural resources, agricultural and industrial patterns of the geographic regions of North America. Several voluntary field trips to local industries. Winter Session: Eastern North America. Spring Session: Western North America.

M., W., and F. at 1. 6 points in Group II or III. [4]

MR. GOODWIN.

GEOLOGY

Students wishing to fulfill Group II requirements in the field of geology are advised to take Courses 1, 2 and 28.

1. PHYSICAL GEOLOGY. Courses 1 and 2 are planned to give students knowledge of the earth as the most important physical factor in their background. Course 1 covers the composition and structure of the earth, the internal and external forces acting upon it, and the surface features resulting. The laboratory includes several field trips, study of common rocks and minerals, and intensive study of contour maps as means of depicting topography. Course 1 makes a good unit for students taking other sciences and wishing to gain some knowledge of the content of geology. Those wishing to become familiar with topographic maps are also advised to take this course.

With Course 2 it satisfies the laboratory science requirement in Group II. Lectures: Tu. and Th. at 11, Th. at 1. Laboratory (4 hours): M. and W., 2-4 or Tu. and Th., 9-11 or 2-4. 5 points in Group II. [8]

PROFESSOR SHARP, MR. GOODWIN, and MR. WRIGHT.

2. HISTORICAL GEOLOGY. Important steps in the history of the earth and of the life upon it from the beginning to modern times are emphasized. The laboratory includes a Planetarium visit, study of invertebrate fossils and of geologic maps and structures, museum trips for the study of vertebrate fossils, short field trips, and, if conditions permit, a required Saturday field trip.

Prerequisite, Course 1. Lectures: Tu. and Th. at 11, Th. at 1. Laboratory (4 hours): M. and W., 2-4 or Tu. and Th., 9-11 or 2-4. 5 points. [8]

PROFESSOR SHARP, MR. GOODWIN, and MR. WRIGHT.

1a. PHYSICAL GEOLOGY. Lectures identical with those of Geology 1. No laboratory work. To follow or parallel a laboratory science. Should not be elected by students expecting to take further work in geology. Tu. and Th. at 11, Th. at 1. 3 points in Group II. [8]

PROFESSOR SHARP.

2a. HISTORICAL GEOLOGY. Lectures identical with those of Geology 2. No laboratory work. Prerequisite, Course 1 or 1a. To follow or parallel a laboratory science. Should not be elected by students expecting to take further work in geology. Tu. and Th. at 11, Th. at 1. 3 points in Group II. [8]

PROFESSOR SHARP.

*7. ELEMENTS OF MINERALOGY. The sight recognition and uses of the common minerals. Laboratory work in the identification of minerals by their physical properties and by simple chemical and blowpipe methods. Emphasis on minerals of economic importance and widespread occurrence. Given in Columbia College as A11. Tu. and Th. at 11 and Tu., 2-4. 3 points. [8]

PROFESSOR HOLMES.

15. PALEONTOLOGY. The study of selected fossil specimens from all major geologic epochs and from most divisions of the plant and animal kingdoms. The principles of evolution and scientific nomenclature and the development of man's knowledge of plants and animals of the past.

Prerequisite, Courses 1 and 2; no prerequisite for majors in biologic sciences. Given in alternate years. Tu. and Th. at 10. Laboratory: Th., 2-4. 3 points. [7]

PROFESSOR HOLZWASSER.

16. ADVANCED HISTORICAL GEOLOGY. A study of the Paleozoic and/or later geologic history of selected regions.

Prerequisite, Courses 1 and 2. Tu., Th. at 11, and a third hour to be arranged. 3 points in Group II. [8]

PROFESSOR HOLZWASSER.

19. STRUCTURAL GEOLOGY. Lectures, readings and problems on folds, faults, and other geologic structures, and on geologic maps and sections. One or more voluntary field trips.

Prerequisite, Courses 1 and 2 or the equivalent. Courses 19 and 27 are ordinarily given in alternate years. M., W., and F. at 2. 3 points. [5]

PROFESSOR SHARP.

[26. TOPOGRAPHIC DIVISIONS OF EUROPE. Lectures, map study, and readings on the topographic regions of Europe. This course is intended for students interested in the regional aspects of geology and geography and should also be of value to students interested in any aspect of European civilization or travel.

Prerequisite, Courses 1 and 2; may be taken concurrently with 2. Not open to freshmen. With the instructor's permission juniors and seniors may take this without Course 2. Alternates with a similar course on the United States. 4 points in Group II. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR SHARP.

[27. THE ORIGIN OF LANDFORMS. Lectures, map study, and readings on the principles of geomorphology. The origin and evolution of surface features of the earth as controlled by the interaction between geologic structures and erosional processes. One or more voluntary field trips.

Prerequisite, Courses 1 and 2 or the equivalent. Courses 19 and 27 are ordinarily given in alternate years. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR SHARP.

28. TOPOGRAPHIC DIVISIONS OF THE UNITED STATES. Lectures, map study, and readings on the 25 fundamental natural regions of the United States. This course should be of value to students majoring in government, history, economics, the natural sciences, and others wishing to understand the regional aspects of the United States, or expecting to travel within its boundaries. One or more voluntary field trips.

Prerequisite, Courses 1 and 2; may be taken concurrently with 2. Not open to freshmen. With the instructor's permission juniors and seniors may take this without Course 2. Alternates with a similar course on Europe. M., W., and F. at 2. 4 points. [5]

PROFESSOR SHARP.

30. ADVANCED PHYSICAL GEOLOGY. A seminar course with discussions, problems, and readings on various topics in geology.

Prerequisite, Courses 1 and 2 and 19 or 27. Open to juniors and seniors. W., 3-5, and a third hour to be arranged. 3 points. [10]

PROFESSOR SHARP.

GERMAN

HUGH WILEY PUCKETT, Ph.D., Professor of German,
Executive officer

LOUISE G. STABENAU, A.M., Associate in German

CLARE BALLUFF, A.M., Lecturer in German

ALEXANDER GODE, Ph.D., Lecturer in German

A major in German. Students majoring in German will be required to take:

German. Courses 9, 10, 36, 45, 46, 51 and other courses to be arranged in consultation with the department.

Other fields. Courses which will vary with the special interest of the student and must be arranged in consultation with the major department.

INTRODUCTORY COURSES

1-2. BEGINNERS' FULL-YEAR COURSE. Elements of grammar, easy reading, written and oral practice.

Students who take Course 1-2 must also take Course 01-02.

M., W., and F. at 9 (I), at 11 (II); Tu. and Th. at 9 and F. at 3 (III). 6 points. [15]

MRS. STABENAU and MISS BALLUFF.

01-02. ORAL PRACTICE. Conversation as extension of the work in Course 1-2.

Open also to students in Course 3, 4 and, by special permission, to students in other German courses. Tu. and Th. at 9 (I), at 10 (II), at 11 (III), at 2 (IV). 2 points. [0]

MRS. STABENAU, MISS BALLUFF, and DR. GODE.

3, 4. INTERMEDIATE COURSE. Rapid reading of texts, with practice in writing and speaking German.

Prerequisite for Course 3, Course 1-2 or two years of high school German.

Prerequisite for Course 4, Course 3, or three years of high school German. M., W., and F. at 9 (I), at 1 (II). 6 points. [15]

MRS. STABENAU and MISS BALLUFF.

LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE COURSES

5, 6. LESSING, GOETHE, AND SCHILLER. Although the course emphasizes literary appreciation rather than practice in the language, considerable opportunity is offered in the discussions for such practice.

Prerequisite for Course 5, Course 4 or a high grade in three years of high school German. Prerequisite for Course 6, Course 5 or the written permission of the instructor. Course 5, 6 is recommended as preparation for more advanced courses in German literature. M., W., and F. at 10.6 points. [2]

PROFESSOR PUCKETT.

7, 8. MODERN GERMAN PROSE. Rapid reading of modern German historical, critical, and scientific prose, assignments in German newspapers and journals. Structure and development of vocabulary. Especially helpful in giving a more fluent reading knowledge of German for use in other fields, such as science and history, and in preparing for the foreign language test in German.

Prerequisite for Course 7, Course 4 or the written permission of the instructor. Prerequisite for Course 8, Course 7 or the written permission of the instructor. M., W., and F. at 11.6 points. [3]

PROFESSOR PUCKETT.

9, 10. PRACTICE COURSE. Conversation and written exercises.

Prerequisite, Course 3 or a good grade in three years of high school German. Tu. and Th. at 10 and, for the third point, Th at 1. 4, or on written permission of the instructor, 6 points. [0]

MRS. STABENAU.

25, 26. THE DRAMA OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

Prerequisite, Course 5, 6 or 7, 8, or the equivalent. Tu. and Th. at 11, and, for the third point, Th. at 1. 4 or 6 points. [8]

MRS. STABENAU.

[27. PROSE FICTION OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

Prerequisite, Course 5, 6 or 7, 8, or the written permission of the instructor. 2 or 3 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR PUCKETT.

[28. THE LITERATURE OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY.

Prerequisite, Course 5, 6 or 7, 8, or the written permission of the instructor. 2 or 3 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR PUCKETT.

30. GERMAN ROMANTICISM.

Prerequisite, Course 5, 6 or 7, 8, or the written permission of the instructor. 2 or 3 points. W. and F. at 9, and, for the third point, Th. at 1. [1]

PROFESSOR PUCKETT.

[36. GOETHE'S Faust.

Prerequisite, Course 5, 6 or 7, 8, or the written permission of the instructor. 2 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR PUCKETT.

[45, 46. HISTORY OF GERMAN LITERATURE FROM THE EARLIEST TIMES TO THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

Prerequisite, Course 5, 6 or 7, 8, or the equivalent. 6 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR PUCKETT.

51. GERMAN LIFE AND INSTITUTIONS. The intellectual life of the German people as expressed in their literature and arts, as well as in their institutions, from the time of Frederick the Great to the present. Given in English.

Open to students of all classes. W. and F. at 9. 2 points. [1]

PROFESSOR PUCKETT.

GRADUATE COURSES

Certain graduate courses given at Columbia University are open with the consent of the department and the Committee on Students' Programs of Barnard College to specially qualified seniors. A description of these courses will be found in the Announcement of the Faculty of Philosophy.

GOVERNMENT

RAYMOND MOLEY, Ph.D., LL.D., Professor of Public Law

<sup>1</sup>THOMAS PRESTON PEARDON, Ph.D., Professor of Government,

JANE PERRY CLARK CAREY, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Government

MARY H. FAIRBANKS, A.M., Associate in Government

C. DALE FULLER, A.M., Lecturer in Government

MARINA SALVIN, A.M., Lecturer in Government

LOUISE B. GERRARD, A.M., Lecturer in Government

A major in government. In the work of the major several kinds of interest are recognized. The lists of courses given below are arranged in accordance with these interests. It is not expected that majors will take all the courses in any of these lists. They are intended rather to help students to construct, in consultation with the adviser, a logical program both in government and in related fields.

1. For those who desire a general background in the field: Government 1, 2; 3, 4; 11, 12; 31, 32; 71, 72; History 1-2; 9, 10; 25, 26; Economics 1, 2; Sociology 1-2; Philosophy 91, 92; Religion 9, 10.

2. For those whose primary interest is in American government: Government 1, 2; 7, 8; 23, 24; 25, 26; 49, 50; Economics 1, 2; History 9, 10; Sociology 1-2.

3. For those whose primary interest is in international relations and foreign governments: Government 3, 4; 11, 12; 14; 15; 16; International Relations 81-82; History 1-2; 25, 26; 37, 38; 39, 40; Economics 1, 2; 16; Geography 1-2.

4. For those whose primary interest is in political theory: Government 3, 4; 31, 32; 71, 72; 171, 172; 173, 174; Philosophy 22; 61-62; 69; 91, 92; History 1-2; 36; 41-42; Religion 7, 8; 9, 10; Economics 27, 28; Sociology 41.

Because of the close relationship between the subject matter of history and that of government students majoring in government may, with the written permission of the adviser, offer as part of the required 28 points, 6 points in history including a choice of History 1-2, 3, 4, 9, 10, 11, 12, 23, 24, 25, 26, 37, 38 or 45, 46. When such courses are counted toward the major in government they may not also be counted toward the satisfaction of the requirement in other social sciences described below.

Other social sciences. In view of the essential unity of the social sciences every student majoring in government is required to take courses amounting to 12 points distributed between two of the following departments as selected in conference with the adviser: anthropology, economics, geography, history, philosophy, psychology, religion, sociology.

See also Other Interdepartmental Offerings, page 41.

See also International Relations, page 41.

[1, 2. INTRODUCTION TO MODERN GOVERNMENT. The nature of the modern state and of modern government; representative political patterns of our time such as the American presidential, the British cabinet, Russian soviet and other systems; important political ideas, forces, and problems of today.

Open to students of all classes. To be given in sections meeting three times a week with a fourth hour for conferences, field trips, meetings and discussions. 8 points. To be given in 1950-51 in place of Government 3, 4 and 5, 6. Not given in 1949-50.]

3, 4. COMPARATIVE GOVERNMENT. An introduction to contemporary politics, especially as illustrated by the institutions, trends, and problems of government in certain foreign countries: England, France, Germany, the U.S.S.R., and others.

Open to all except freshmen. A term paper will be required. M., W., and F. at 11 and a conference hour. 8 points. [3] sphere, including problems of an international secretariat, an international civil service, and the practice of international conferences.

Prerequisite, Course 1, 2 or its equivalent. M. and W. at 3. 6 points. [10]

MRS. FAIRBANKS.

[61. SEMINAR FOR MAJORS. Selected subjects and books in politics and government.

Open only to seniors majoring in government or in government and history. 2 points.]

PROFESSOR PEARDON.

71, 72. SPECIAL READING. Study of selected topics and books in politics and government.

This course may be taken only in connection with some other course in government and with the written permission of the instructor. M. at 2. 2 points. [0]

MRS. GERRARD.

GRADUATE COURSES

Certain graduate courses given at Columbia University are open with the consent of the department and the Committee on Students' Programs of Barnard College to specially qualified seniors. Ordinarily a minimum of 12 points of government at Barnard in addition to a major interest in the social sciences is required as a prerequisite. A description of the graduate courses will be found in the Announcement of the Faculty of Political Science. The following are specially recommended as suitable for Barnard seniors:

**Government 101, 102. The Process of Government. PROFESSOR WALLACE. W., 11-1. 6 points.*

GREEK AND LATIN

F. ELLENOR M. SWALLOW, Ph.D., Instructor in Greek and Latin

A major in Greek, or in Latin, or in Greek and Latin combined. Courses may be counted toward these majors as follows:

Major in Greek. Any courses in Greek and 4 points in archaeology or classical civilization or Greek history may count.

Major in Latin. Any courses in Latin and 4 points in archaeology or classical civilization or Roman history may count.

Major in Greek and Latin combined. The following combinations are possible: (a) 18 points of Greek, 10 points of Latin; (b) 18 points of Latin, 10 points of Greek. No points in archaeology or classical civilization may count.

At least one course in Greek composition and one course in Latin composition are strongly recommended.

Other fields. The work in other fields will vary with the special interest of the student and should be arranged in consultation with the major department. Students will find it profitable to take courses in Greek history, or in Roman history, or in both (History 5, 6, 13, 14, 15, 16). A reading knowledge of French and German is advised.

ARCHAEOLOGY AND CLASSICAL CIVILIZATION

Students majoring in Greek or in Latin may count courses in archaeology and classical civilization either toward their major or toward the 14-point requirement in the group indicated for each course, but not to cover both requirements. For all other students courses in archaeology and classical civilization will count toward the 14-point requirement in the group indicated for each course.

[71. THE GREEK AND ROMAN THEATRE. Development of tragedy, comedy, and theatre building, based on literary evidence and particularly on monuments and objects of art. Third hour for the reading, in English translation, of Aeschylus, Sophocles, Euripides, Aristophanes, Plautus, and Terence.

3 points in Group I. Not given in 1949-50.]

For related courses see Fine Arts 41, graduate courses in Fine Arts (page 67) and other courses in the Announcement of the Faculty of Philosophy.

HISTORY

BASIL RAUCH, Ph.D., Associate Professor of History,
Executive officer

VIRGINIA D. HARRINGTON, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of History

RENÉ ALBRECHT-CARRIÉ, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of History

CHILTON WILLIAMSON, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of History

CHARLOTTE T. MURET, Ph.D., Associate in History

URSULA S. LAMB, A.M., Lecturer in History

ANNE HEENE, A.M., Lecturer in History

A major in history. Students majoring in history will be required to take the following courses:

History. Courses 1-2, 9, 10 and, if possible, one other general course, such as those offered in ancient, medieval, or English history. They should then concentrate their attention on some special field in which to do work of a more advanced character. Courses 1-2 and 9, 10 should have been taken by the end of the junior year. Course 45, 46 is recommended for seniors majoring in history having an average in history courses of at least B.

On account of the close relationship between the subject matter of history and that of government, students majoring in history may with the written permission of the department offer as part of the 28 points of the major requirement 6 points in government. When such courses are counted toward the major, they may not also be counted toward the satisfaction of the requirement in other social sciences described below.

Other social sciences. In view of the essential unity of the social sciences, students majoring in history must elect 12 points distributed in two social sciences other than history. The courses will be selected in conference with the adviser. Certain of these courses may also be counted toward the satisfaction of the general requirement in Group I or Group II. (See page 24.)

Students majoring in history must acquire a reading knowledge of some foreign language.

With the work in history they may combine work in other departments to make up a group of correlated courses on some large subject, such as ancient history and philosophy or art, modern history and international relations or sociology, English history and literature or government, American history and economics, the history of thought and culture.

See also Other Interdepartmental Majors, page 41.

MATHEMATICAL ANALYSIS. A general cultural course designed to give the student who intends to take only one year of college mathematics as broad a view as possible of the nature of mathematics. The subject matter will include topics from algebra, trigonometry, analytic geometry, differential and integral calculus. The emphasis will be upon the appreciation of the philosophy of mathematics but will reduce to a minimum the development of technical skills and the applications to specific problems. This course is not recommended for students of the physical sciences and is not open to students planning to major in mathematics. Full-year course.

44. THE THEORY OF SPACE AND TIME. The course will be divided into two parts. In the first, the foundations of euclidean and non-euclidean geometry will be considered. The second is devoted to the special theory of relativity.

Prerequisite, Course 31-32. M., W., and F. at 11. 3 points. [3]

PROFESSOR LORCH.

[45. ANALYTIC GEOMETRY OF SPACE AND HYPERSPACE. Modern methods in solid analytics. Vectors, matrices, groups, quadratic forms.

Prerequisite, Course 31-32. 3 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

47. ELEMENTARY THEORY OF NUMBERS. A study of the properties of whole numbers. A variety of important and historically interesting problems will be discussed on an entirely elementary basis. Among the topics to be dealt with are: divisibility; Euclid's algorithm; prime numbers; quadratic residues; diophantine equations; rings and fields.

Prerequisite, Course 22. M., W., and F. at 10. 3 points. [2]

MISS BOLTON.

54. ADVANCED CALCULUS. An introduction to various branches of mathematical analysis. Partial differentiation and multiple integrals and their applications to geometry and physics; line integrals, the theorems of Green and Stokes; Fourier series; the calculus of variations.

[57. HIGHER ALGEBRA. Fields, theory of equations in various fields, symmetric functions, elimination theory. Theory of determinants and matrices, systems of linear equations.

Preceding or parallel, Course 32. 3 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

MISS BOLTON.

108. PROBABILITY. The classical theory of probability is developed in a rigorous fashion. The critique of the theory is implemented by the discussion of numerous examples. The topics treated include: the theorems of Tchebycheff, Bernoulli and Poisson; Stirling's formula; the probability integral; generating functions; the normal law of error.

Preceding or parallel, Course 33. M., W., and F. at 2. 3 points. [5]

PROFESSOR KOOPMAN.

109. CALCULUS OF FINITE DIFFERENCES. The calculus of finite differences and sums is developed in analogy to the differential and integral calculus, and is then applied to the study of difference equations, special functions, infinite products, and asymptotic expansions. While the emphasis of the course is theoretical, applications are made to interpolation and approximation in tabulated data.

Prerequisite, Course 33. M., W., and F. at 9. 3 points. [1]

PROFESSOR LORCH.

[135, 136. SURVEY OF MODERN MATHEMATICS. A general course emphasizing the historical evolution of fundamental concepts. Development of the number system from integers to complex domain. Modern theory of infinity. The function concept. Algebra of logic. The foundations of geometry. Elementary geometry of four dimensions. Analytic treatment of  $n$ -dimensions. Non-euclidean systems. Geometric groups. Applications to physics.

A major in music. Students intending to major in music should plan to take Courses 1 and 2 in the freshman year and Course 31-32 in the sophomore year as these courses are prerequisite to the advanced courses in literature, history, and theory which are normally included in a major program.

In general, major programs are planned to include 28 points of advanced work (exclusive of Courses 1 and 2) both in literature and history, and in theory. Ordinarily Courses 23-24, 35-36, 37-38, and 41-42 are required. Applied music courses are counted toward fulfillment of the major but are not required. Music majors, whether or not registered in courses in applied music, are expected to participate in the undergraduate musical organizations.

Attendance at the Collegium Musicum meetings is compulsory for all music majors.

Other fields. A reading knowledge of German, Italian, or French is required. Students planning to do graduate work must have two foreign languages one of which is German. Italian 1-2 is recommended for its relationship with the materials of Music 5. Philosophy 41-42 is recommended. Courses in history, literature, or other fields which will vary with the special interest of the student should be elected after consultation with the major department.

Practice rooms. The department provides practice rooms at a nominal charge for the use of students of applied music. Preference in assigning hours is given in order of application to those enrolled in courses given by the department. Application for practice time should be made to the department office, 407 Barnard, during registration and the first two days of classes. Organ students should apply to the Columbia departmental secretary, 601 Journalism.

Library. Books, scores, and records are available at the Barnard College Library. The Columbia Department of Music maintains in 701 Journalism a lending library of books and scores. In addition, phonographs with a large collection of records are available to students.

LITERATURE AND HISTORY

1-2. AN INTRODUCTION TO MUSIC. A study of the elements of musical structure designed to form intelligent habits of listening to music. The spring session is devoted to a study of selected masterpieces of the several great epochs of music, with emphasis on their style and structure. No previous knowledge of music is required. Full-year course.

Tu. and Th. at 11 and an additional drill hour, Th. at 1. 603 Journalism. 4 points. [8]

PROFESSOR MOORE and associates.

5. THE OPERA. A rapid survey of the development of opera from Monteverdi to the present.

Prerequisite, Course 1-2 or the equivalent. M., W., and F. at 1. 408 Barnard. 3 points. [4]

PROFESSOR CADY.

6. THE SYMPHONY. Survey of symphonic style and structure from about 1750 to the present.

Prerequisite, Course 1-2 or the equivalent. M., W., and F. at 1. 408 Barnard. 3 points. [4]

PROFESSOR CADY.

*13-14. LITERATURE OF CHAMBER MUSIC. A study of the literature of chamber music involving class analysis and performance of a selected list of compositions from the seventeenth century to the present day. Full-year course.

Prerequisite, Course 1 or the equivalent, and sufficient technical ability on piano, string, or wind instrument. Open only on written permission of the instructor. Tu., 3-5. 609 Journalism. 4 points.

PROFESSOR DITTLER.

*19, 20. LITERATURE OF CHORAL MUSIC. A study of the choral literature from the Renaissance to the present.

Prerequisite, Music 1-2 or the equivalent and the ability to read music. 2 points. F., 2-4. 703 Journalism.

MR. AVSHALOMOFF.

*23-24. HISTORY OF MUSIC. A survey of the history of music from the beginning of the Christian era to the present. Full-year course.

Prerequisite, Course 31-32 or the equivalent. Tu. and Th. at 11 and Th. at 1. 608 Journalism. 6 points.

MR. LOFT.

*27. INTRODUCTION TO CLASSICAL MUSIC. Analysis, discussion and performance of representative music of the Classical era, with special consideration of the place of music in the general culture of the period. Students will be required to submit original, critical reports on assigned topics.

Prerequisite, Course 31-32 or the equivalent. M., W., and F. at 3. 608 Journalism. 3 points.

PROFESSOR CADY.

*28. INTRODUCTION TO ROMANTIC MUSIC. Analysis, discussion, and performance of representative music of the nineteenth century, with special consideration of the place of music in the general culture of the period. Students will be required to submit original, critical reports on assigned topics.

Prerequisite, Course 31-32 or the equivalent. M., W., and F. at 3. 608 Journalism. 3 points.

PROFESSOR CADY.

*41-42. HISTORICAL AND ANALYTICAL STUDIES IN THE LITERATURE OF MUSIC. Required seminar for senior music majors to supplement and coördinate previous studies.

Th., 3-5. 703 Journalism. 6 points.

PROFESSOR CADY with the assistance of the entire staff.

*57. BACH AND THE BAROQUE PERIOD. Analysis, discussion, and performance of representative music of the baroque era with emphasis on the works of Bach.

Prerequisite, Course 31-32 or the equivalent. M., 2-4, Th. at 2. 603 Journalism. 3 points.

PROFESSOR MOORE.

*58. TWENTIETH-CENTURY TENDENCIES IN MUSIC. Lectures and discussions of the idioms, esthetics, forms, and styles of the chief contemporary composers.

Prerequisite, Course 31-32 or the equivalent. M., 2-4 and Th. at 2. 603 Journalism. 3 points.

PROFESSOR MOORE.

*109. STUDIES IN MEDIEVAL MUSIC. A survey of the main types of music through the fourteenth century, with detailed analysis of the music.

Open to qualified seniors. Prerequisite, Course 23-24 or the equivalent. W., 2-5. 703 Journalism. 3 points.

PROFESSOR HERTZMANN.

*110. STUDIES IN RENAISSANCE MUSIC. The main types of music from the fourteenth into the sixteenth century. Analysis of representative compositions and recordings.

Open to qualified seniors. Prerequisite, Course 23-24 or the equivalent. F., 2-5. 703 Journalism. 3 points.

PROFESSOR HERTZMANN.

[*111. BAROQUE MUSIC. A survey of baroque tendencies in music from the late sixteenth to the early eighteenth century, with detailed analysis of representative works.

Open to qualified seniors. Prerequisite, Course 23-24 or the equivalent. 3 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR HERTZMANN.

[*112. ROCOCO MUSIC. Discussion and analysis of rococo music during the eighteenth century based on the study of representative compositions.

Open to qualified seniors. Prerequisite, Course 23-24 or the equivalent. 3 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR HERTZMANN.

Collegium Musicum meets several times a year on Monday evenings to be announced. College Parlor, Barnard.

The aim of this organization is to acquaint the students with certain neglected and unfamiliar masterpieces in the literature of music, in order to supplement concert and recital programs to be heard in the city and elsewhere. All students majoring in music are required to attend the meetings and are urged to participate actively in the performance of vocal and instrumental music. The literature to be used embraces music from medieval times up to the present day. Emphasis is placed upon a variety of compositions and not on finished performance.

THEORY

31-32. HARMONY. A study of triads, tones of figuration, dissonance, and modulation. One hour each week is devoted to ear training and one hour to keyboard harmony. Students who register must be able to play the piano. Full-year course.

Prerequisite, Course 1 or the equivalent and the written permission of the instructor. M. and F. at 2, and W., 2-4. 408 Barnard. 8 points. [5]

MR. WIGGLESWORTH.

35-36. COUNTERPOINT. Full-year course.

Prerequisite, Course 31-32 or the equivalent. M., W., and F. at 10. 408 Barnard. 6 points. [2]

MR. AVSHALOMOFF.

*37-38. ADVANCED HARMONY AND ANALYSIS. An analytical study of the elements of chromaticism. The exercises in various styles are taken from the literature and are designed to introduce the student to characteristic features of musical texture. One hour each week will be devoted to a study of musical design. Full-year course.

Prerequisite, Course 31-32 or the equivalent. Parallel, advised but not required, Course 35-36. M., W., and F. at 11 and a fourth hour to be arranged. 703 Journalism. 8 points.

PROFESSOR MITCHELL and MR. USSACHEVSKY.

*39-40. COMPOSITION A. Composition in the smaller forms, including songs, choral settings of carols and anthems, piano or organ solos, and pieces for violin or other instruments with piano. Full-year course.

Prerequisite, Course 31-32 or the equivalent. Tu., 10-12. 703 Journalism. 4 points.

PROFESSOR LUENING.

*131-132. COMPOSITION B. Canon and fugue are studied with practice in writing in these forms. Freer compositions are made for chorus, organ, piano, and chamber-music groups. Full-year course.

Prerequisite, Course 35-36 and the written permission of the instructor. M., 2-4. 609 Journalism. 4 points.

MR. CARTER.

*G.S. MUSIC 71-72. ORCHESTRATION. A description with demonstrations of modern orchestral instruments. Students will make instrumental arrangements for various ensembles.

Prerequisite, permission of the instructor. Room and hours to be arranged. 6 points.

MR. THOMAS.

APPLIED MUSIC

Note: Each course in applied music must be taken parallel to a theoretical or historical course in music in order to count toward the degree, with the exception of course 73-74.

*63-64. UNIVERSITY CHAMBER ORCHESTRA.

W., 7:30-9:30. Casa Italiana Auditorium. 2 points.

PROFESSOR DITTLER.

The regular activities of the orchestra include two concerts in McMillin Theater and two opera productions in Brander Matthews Hall. Membership in the orchestra is not limited to students who register for this course.

An audition schedule will be posted on the bulletin board of the Columbia Music Department during the registration period.

*67-68. UNIVERSITY BAND.

Tu., 7:30-9:45. Casa Italiana. 2 points.

MR. HUNTER WILEY.

The marching unit of the band appears at all major athletic events. Membership is restricted to men.

The concert unit gives a number of local and out-of-town concerts during the season and appears at Commencement. Membership is open to both men and women. Neither unit is limited to students who register for this course.

An audition schedule will be posted on the bulletin board of the Columbia Music Department during the registration period.

*73-74. CONDUCTING AND SCORE READING. Lectures and practice in conducting. Reading, at the keyboard, of music for transposing instruments and of scores written in the C-clefs. Full-year course.

Prerequisite, Course 31-32 or the equivalent and the written permission of the instructor. Tu. at 2 and Th., 1-3. 609 Journalism. 6 points.

MR. THOMAS.

79, 80. VOCAL INSTRUCTION. Private lessons in voice production and in interpretation. Coaching and repertory.

No student shall register for this course without consultation with the Music Department as early in the registration period as possible. Special fee, $100

each session; no refunds. One hour weekly to be arranged. 406 Barnard. 2 points (see note, page 101). [0]

MME. RYBNER-BARCLAY.

83, 84. ORGAN INSTRUCTION. Individual instruction in the technique of the instrument and a weekly class lesson, or lecture recital, on the interpretation of the works of representative organ composers.

Open only on written permission of the instructor. Hours to be arranged. 2 points (see note, page 101). [0]

83a, 84a. Private lessons. Special fee, $100 each session; no refunds.

83b, 84b. One hour a week in a group of three. Special fee, $60 each session; no refunds.

83c, 84c. One hour a week in a group of four. Special fee, $45 each session; no refunds.

MR. WEINRICH.

91, 92. PIANO INSTRUCTION FOR BEGINNERS. Private lessons in the technique of the instrument and in interpretation.

No student shall register for this course without consultation with the Music Department as early in the registration period as possible. Special fee, $75 each session; no refunds. Hours to be arranged. 406 Barnard. 2 points (see note, page 101). [0]

MISS HILL.

93, 94. PIANO INSTRUCTION FOR ADVANCED STUDENTS. Private lessons in the technique of the instrument and in interpretation. Coaching and repertory.

No student shall register for this course without consultation with the Music Department as early in the registration period as possible. Special fee, $160 each session; no refunds. Hours to be arranged. 406 Barnard. 2 points (see note, page 101). [0]

MR. SHERIDAN.

BARNARD GLEE CLUB. JACOB AVSHALOMOFF, Director.

All Barnard students are eligible for membership. The repertory will consist chiefly of compositions for women's voices from the literature of the masters and representative contemporary composers and of arrangements of folk music of various countries.

Besides appearances at the College, the Glee Club's schedule normally includes broadcasts and concerts outside of college, joint programs with men's and others women's colleges and two concerts each season with the Columbia University Glee Club and the Columbia University Orchestra at which more elaborate choral works will be performed.

Rehearsals: Tu. and Th., 5-6:15. 408 Barnard.

Audition dates: Th., Sept. 29, 4-6 and Tu., Oct. 4, 4-5. 408 Barnard.

First rehearsal: Th., Oct. 6.

CHAPEL CHOIR. DR. LOWELL P. BEVERIDGE, Director of Chapel Music. All men and women students of the University are eligible to sing in the Chapel Choir. Regular members of the choir will receive $100 for the academic year.

Services: Daily except Saturday, 12-12:20, and Sunday at 11.

Rehearsals: M., W., and F., 5-6:15; Sunday, 9:45. Chapel Crypt.

Auditions: M., Sept. 26, 3-5; Tu., Sept. 27, 10-12 and 3-5; W., Sept. 28, 10-12. Chapel Crypt.

ORIENTAL CIVILIZATIONS

Courses in oriental language, literature, history, philosophy, and art, given at Columbia University and described in the Announcement of the Faculty of Philosophy, are, with the permission of the instructors and the Committee on Students' Programs of Barnard College, open to properly qualified seniors.

PHILOSOPHY

HELEN HUSS PARKHURST, Ph.D., Professor of Philosophy,
Executive officer

GERTRUDE V. RICH, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Philosophy

JOHN E. SMITH, B.D., Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Philosophy

JOSEPH GERARD BRENNAN, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Philosophy

Since the philosopher raises fundamental questions about the universe, man, and human institutions, and since he endeavors to correlate the various fields of knowledge in his search for the good, the true, and the beautiful, philosophic study is peculiarly bound up with and dependent upon all other studies. According to which subdivision of the whole field of philosophy—ethics, logic, metaphysics, esthetics—particularly interests those majoring in the subject, one or another group of courses will be found especially valuable. Strongly recommended:

- 1) in connection with the study of individual and social ethics are certain courses in religion, psychology, anthropology, government, and sociology;
- 2) in connection with the study of logic, courses in mathematics, statistics, scientific methods, and linguistics;
- 3) in connection with the study of metaphysics, courses in the sciences of inorganic and organic nature;
- 4) in connection with the study of esthetics, certain courses in music, fine arts, psychology, anthropology, and the literatures, ancient and modern;
- 5) in connection with the study of the history of philosophic ideas, courses in the history of science and in political and social history.

So intimately connected with the subject-matter of philosophy is the subject-matter dealt with in such courses that, by special arrangement, a limited number of points, not exceeding 6, in related departments, may count toward the 28-point requirement for a major in philosophy.

I (or RI). INTRODUCTION TO PHILOSOPHY. A survey of the various subdivisions of philosophic inquiry with special consideration of the metaphysics of materialism and idealism and their respective affiliations with natural science and with religion.

Winter Session: M., W., and F. at 9 (I); at 10 (II); at 11 (III); at 2 (IV) for freshmen only. Spring Session the same. 3 points either session in Group III.

PROFESSORS PARKHURST, RICH, BRENNAN, and SMITH.

4. METAPHYSICS. An examination of some of the critical problems of metaphysics, with reference to important classic and modern treatments.

Prerequisite, Course 1 or the equivalent. M., W., and F. at 11. 3 points in Group III. [3]

PROFESSOR BRENNAN.

5. LOGIC. A survey of traditional logic with an introduction to symbolism. Some reference will be made to probability theory and to semantics.

M., W., and F. at 11. 3 points in Group II or III. [3]

PROFESSOR BRENNAN.

22. ETHICS. Man and his concern for moral values. Discussion of various views of the good life including: Kantian ethics, utilitarianism, ethics of self-realization, naturalism, positivism, intuitionism. The relation of religion to morality. Readings will include selections from Kant, Mill, Bentham, F. H. Bradley, Dewey, Russell, Ayer, Moore, and Ewing.

Open to juniors and seniors and to qualified sophomores on the written permission of the department. Tu. and Th. at 10, and Th. at 1. 3 points in Group III. [7]

PROFESSOR SMITH.

41-42. GENERAL ESTHETICS. A survey of the main problems of esthetic theory including the origins of art, the nature of creative imagination and esthetic experience and the meaning of the beautiful, the sublime, the tragic, and the comic. The arts will be treated comparatively for a distinguishing of their similarities and differences of medium, subject-matter, and esthetic form and for a consideration of their relations to the experienced world and everyday living. Full-year course.

Open to juniors and seniors, and to qualified sophomores on written permission of the department. Tu. and Th. at 9. 6 points in Group I. [6]

PROFESSOR PARKHURST.

43. PHILOSOPHICAL IMPLICATIONS OF THE MODERN NOVEL. The following themes will be developed: the relation of man to nature and to art; the rôle played in human affairs by moral standards and values; conceptions of the dignity of man; the effect of political forces upon the individual person. Selected works of Joyce, Mann, Kafka, A. Zweig, Malraux, Koestler, and of other important contemporary novelists will be read and discussed.

Prerequisite, Course 1 (R1), 41-42 or the equivalent, or the written permission of the instructor. M., W., and F. at 1. 3 points in Group III. [4]

PROFESSOR BRENNAN.

[45. THE ESTHETICS OF POETRY AND PROSE. A study of the musical aspect of poetry—rhythm, rhyme, alliteration, and stanzaic patterns; of poetic imagery in prose as well as poetry; and of principles of prose style.

2 points in Group I. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR PARKHURST.

53, 54. PROBLEMS OF ESTHETICS.

This course may be taken only in connection with some other course in esthetics. Hour to be arranged for individual conferences for the discussion of important texts. 2 points in Group I. [0]

PROFESSOR PARKHURST.

61-62. THE HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY. Full-year course.

Open to juniors and seniors, and to qualified sophomores on written permission of the department. M., W., and F. at 10. 6 points in Group III. [2]

PROFESSORS RICH and BRENNAN (first term); PROFESSORS RICH, SMITH, and BRENNAN (second term).

63, 64. READINGS IN THE HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY.

This course may be taken only in connection with some other course in philosophy, and with the permission of the department. Hour to be arranged for individual or group conferences for the discussion of important texts. 2 points in Group III. [0]

PROFESSOR BRENNAN.

65-66. SPECIAL READING.

PROFESSORS PARKHURST, RICH, SMITH, AND BRENNAN.

[67. SEVENTEENTH AND EIGHTEENTH CENTURY BRITISH PHILOSOPHY AND ITS INFLUENCE. This course is designed to give the student an acquaintance with the general background of seventeenth and eighteenth century British thought, with special emphasis on the development of the liberal tradition in politics, religion, and ethics, and some knowledge of the influence of this tradition on French philosophy and on the American democratic ideal. To this end Newton and Locke and a number of other British philosophers, and certain French thinkers including Montesquieu, Voltaire, Helvetius, and Rousseau, are considered, as they affect the scientific world-picture and the developing belief in the natural rights of man.

Preceding or parallel, Philosophy 61-62, except by special permission. 3 points in Group III. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR RICH.

[69. THE LIBERAL TRADITION IN PHILOSOPHIC THOUGHT. The study will involve a definition and evaluation of liberalism, and its application in the fields of religion, ethics and politics from the time of Socrates to the present day.

Preceding or parallel, Philosophy 61-62, except by permission of the instructor. 3 points in Group III. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSOR RICH.

70. AMERICAN PHILOSOPHY. A brief development of the Puritan tradition in America and of the political philosophy out of which our institutions have grown will preface a consideration of the great schools of philosophy and their recent American representatives, especially Royce, James, Santayana, Dewey, and the Neo-Realists.

Prerequisite, Courses 1 and 4, or 61-62, except by special permission. Tu. and Th. at 11 and a third hour to be arranged. 3 points in Group III. [8]

PROFESSOR RICH.

71. GERMAN IDEALISM. A study of the fundamental doctrines of the idealist philosophers Leibniz, Kant, Fichte, Schelling, Hegel, and Schopenhauer. Special reference will be made to the social, religious, and political influence of these thinkers in Germany, England, and America. Mention will be made of the British thinkers T. H. Green and F. H. Bradley, and of the American philosopher Josiah Royce. Reading of original sources will take precedence over secondary material.

Prerequisite or parallel, Philosophy 61-62. Tu. and Th. at 10 and a conference hour. 3 points in Group III. [7]

PROFESSOR SMITH.

81, 82. THE PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION. An analysis of the nature of religion involving discussion of its relation to theoretical knowledge, both scientific and philosophic. The historical and cultural settings of religious forms will be indicated and various interpretations of God, man, nature, and history will be set forth and examined.

Winter Session: Religion and the problem of knowledge.

Spring Session: Religion and its relations to ethics, metaphysics, and theology.

Open to all except freshmen. Religion 1, 2 or Philosophy 1 will be found helpful.

M. and W. at 3, and conference hour. 6 points. [10]

PROFESSOR SMITH.

91, 92. AMERICA AND THE FUTURE—SCHEMES FOR A BETTER WORLD.

This course may count toward a major in philosophy and in other subjects with the consent of the department concerned. For full description, see page 43. W., 3-5. 4 or 6 points in Group III. [0] serve the interests, needs, and capacities of the students. Barnard College does not offer a major in physical education. Students who are interested in this field as a profession are advised to consult a member of the department for suggestions as to curriculum.

PROFESSORS PARKHURST and RICH with the collaboration of guest speakers.

The Aim. The ultimate aim of the Medical and Physical Education Departments in its program is to provide each student with opportunities and experiences which are adequate for the acquisition of knowledge, skills, habits, and attitudes concerning health, physical activity and recreation. Regular participation in such a program during college should insure for her the optimum in 'fitness for living'; it should develop proficiency in skill in sports, swimming, and rhythmic, all of which should contribute toward a more abundant and satisfying post-college life.

The Medical and Physical Examinations. Students are given three complete medical and two complete physical examinations during their college course and additional ones when indicated. The schedule of these examinations is found in the Physical Education Handbook. The results of these examinations are expressed in terms of a health and activity grade which is one of the factors determining the kind of program a student wishes to pursue.

A medical examination or consultation with the college physician is required of all upperclassmen before classes begin in the fall only if:

1. During the previous year their health and activity grade was a "C".
2. During the summer their health status has become impaired as a result of illness.

All students are required to report any indisposition to the college physician.

Prescribed Costume. All students are required to wear the regulation costume indicated for the various activities classes. Approximate cost $15.00. For further information see handbook.

The Requirement. The Faculty requires physical education throughout the college course. Failure to complete this requirement may result in the postponement of the degree.

FRESHMAN AND SOPHOMORE requirement is three hours per week on different days.

During the first semester freshmen are required to take a prescribed course in body mechanics and rhythmic fundamentals. M. and W. at 10 (I), 11 (II), 2 (III), 3 (IV). Two hours credit toward the requirement.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR requirement is two hours per week on different days.

Senior Exemption. During the second term of the senior year seniors may be exempt from any further regular physical education activity, provided certain objectives are fulfilled. See handbook for details.

Program of Activities. Two seasons each semester. Except for two hours which are prescribed for freshmen during the first semester, all students elect their 3½ hours of activity depending upon their health, activity status, and special interests. Those interested in "senior exemption" must keep in mind that electives must be chosen from each of the four groups of activities.

Fall and Spring: archery; canoeing; deck tennis; golf; hockey; riding; six passes; softball; swimming; tennis; volley ball.

Winter; both semesters: American square-country dance; badminton; basketball; body mechanics; bowling; canoeing; conditioning exercises; correctives; diving; fencing; folk dance; fundamentals; Greek games athletics and/or dance; modern dance; Red Cross life-saving; riding; six passes; swimming; water ballet.

In all of these activities students are advised to register according to their skill level, i.e., beginning, intermediate, and advanced.

The June camp leadership course at Barnard College Camp aims primarily to train students who are interested in the organization and conduct of Barnard College Camp. A fee of $20.00 is charged for the two-week period. This is an entirely voluntary course and is not a part of the physical education program.

101, 102. DANCING, SPORTS, GAMES, AND SWIMMING for women graduate students under the Faculties of Philosophy, Political Science, and Pure Science, and women students in the professional schools of the University (except Teachers College). All regular sections are open, provided the registration is not already filled by undergraduate students. Graduate students who wish credit must take work in classes in which instruction is given and should avoid "open hour" sections.

PHYSICS

HENRY A. BOORSE, Ph.D., Professor of Physics,
Executive officer

WILLIAM W. HAVENS, JR., Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Physics
—————, Assistant in Physics

A major in physics. Students majoring in physics will be required to take: Physics. Courses to be arranged in consultation with the department.

Other fields. Mathematics: through the differential and integral calculus and, if possible, differential equations. Two semesters of calculus should be completed by the beginning of the junior year. Chemistry: one year's work. A reading knowledge of French or German by graduation. A course in the biological sciences is recommended.

3-4. GENERAL PHYSICS. Full-year course.

Preceding or parallel, mathematics through trigonometry. Lectures: M., W., and F. at 11. Laboratory: 2 hours each session, M., 2-4; Tu., 9-11, 2-4; Th., 1-3. If more than 56 students elect the course, F., 2-4. A third hour, following the laboratory period, is devoted to a discussion of problems and the application of physical principles. Election of the third hour is optional but is advised for all students, especially those seeking to fulfill the premedical requirement. 8 or 9 points. [3]

PROFESSORS BOORSE, HAVENS, and Assistant.

3a-4a. GENERAL PHYSICS. Lectures identical with those of Course 3-4. No laboratory work. Discussion hour optional but advised. Full-year course.

To follow or parallel a laboratory science. M., W., and F. at 11. 6 or 7 points in Group II. [3]

PROFESSORS BOORSE, HAVENS, and Assistant.

5. MODERN PHYSICS. An elementary introduction to modern atomic and nuclear physics. Intended for all students who have completed general physics and wish to obtain a better understanding of recent important developments in physics.

Prerequisite, Course 3-4. M., W., and F. at 2. 3 points. [5]

PROFESSOR BOORSE.

6. PHOTOGRAPHY. The theories of optics as applied to photography and photomicrography. The principles of still and motion picture photography; infrared, ultra-violet and X-ray photography. The theory of color photography.

Prerequisite, Course 3-4, except on written permission of the instructor.

Lecture: Th. at 10. Laboratory (4 hours) on Th. 3 points. [7]

PROFESSOR HAVENS.

31. MECHANICS.

Prerequisite, Course 3-4 and Mathematics 31, except on written permission of the department. M., W., and F. at 1, and 2 hours of laboratory work. 4 points. [4]

PROFESSOR HAVENS.

34. LIGHT.

Prerequisite, Course 3-4 and Mathematics 31-32. M., W., and F. at 1, and 2 hours of laboratory work. 4 points. [4]

PROFESSOR BOORSE.

35. ELECTRICITY AND MAGNETISM. Electrostatics and Direct Current Phenomena.

Prerequisite, Course 3-4 and Mathematics 31-32. M., W., and F. at 3 and 2 hours of laboratory work, W., 4-6. 4 points. [10]

PROFESSOR HAVENS.

36. ELECTRICITY AND MAGNETISM. Alternating Currents and Electronics.

Prerequisite, Course 35. M., W., and F. at 3 and 2 hours of laboratory work, W., 4-6. 4 points. [10]

PROFESSOR HAVENS.

37, 38. SUPPLEMENTARY LABORATORY WORK in mechanics, heat, light or electricity, electronics and the properties of vacuum tubes may be arranged in consultation with the instructors.

Hours and credit by arrangement. [0]

PROFESSORS BOORSE and HAVENS.

40. HEAT AND INTRODUCTION TO THERMODYNAMICS.

Prerequisite, Courses 31 and 35, except on written permission of the department. Preceding or parallel, Mathematics 31-32. M., W., and F. at 3. 3 points. [10]

PROFESSOR BOORSE.

The following COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY courses are open to properly qualified students having written permission of the department.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE COURSES

**Physics 80—Laboratory work in atomic and nuclear physics. 1 or 2 points Spring Session. Hours to be arranged.*

PROFESSOR HAYNER.

This course may be taken only parallel with or following either Physics 116 or Physics 140.

GRADUATE COURSES

For further information consult the Announcement of the Faculty of Pure Science.

**Physics 113—Thermodynamics. Th., 2-4.*

PROFESSOR FOLEY.

**Physics 115-116.—Atomic Physics and Introductory Quantum Mechanics. 3 points each session. M., W., and F. at 1.*

PROFESSOR TOWNES.

PROFESSOR WEBB.

**Physics 125—Vector and Tensor Analysis. 3 points Winter Session. M., W., and F. at 11.*

PROFESSOR QUIMBY.

**Physics 127-128—Introduction to Theoretical Physics. 3 points each session. M., W., and F. at 11.*

DR. WU.

**Physics 140—Radioactivity and Physics of the Nucleus. 3 points Spring Session. Tu. and Th., 11-12:30.*

PORTUGUESE

G.S. Portuguese A1-A2—Elementary Course. Mr. Alexander Prista.

G.S. Portuguese B1-B2—Intermediate Course. Mr. Alexander Prista.

These and other courses in Portuguese language are open to qualified Barnard students. A description of these courses will be found in the Announcement of the School of General Studies.

PSYCHOLOGY

RICHARD PARDEE YOUTZ, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Psychology,
Executive officer

S. STANSFELD SARGENT, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Psychology

BERNICE M. WENZEL, Ph.D., Instructor in Psychology

KATHARINE PEASE, A.M., Instructor in Psychology

FRANCES K. GRAHAM, Ph.D., Instructor in Psychology

CHRISTINE FLURRY, A.B., Assistant in Psychology

JOANNE WEBBER, A.B., Assistant in Psychology

A major in psychology will satisfy the requirement in Group II. Students majoring in this subject must satisfy the 14-point requirement in Group III in subjects other than psychology. For other students, courses in psychology will count toward the requirement in the group indicated.

A major in psychology. Students majoring in psychology will be required to take:

Psychology. Courses 1 or R1, 7-8, 58 or a second course (total 6 points) in philosophy, and the additional points with the advice of the department.

Other fields. One course in philosophy (3 points); one year laboratory course (8 points) in zoölogy, chemistry, or physics<sup>1</sup>; and an organized program in other fields to be arranged in consultation with the department.

Sequence of courses:

Courses 1 or R1, 9, 12, 23, 26, 27, 28, 37 make a good grouping for students interested in education.

Courses 1 or R1, 9, 12, 22, 23, 26, 27, 28, 37 meet the interest of students in the social sciences, social work, business, and practical affairs.

Courses 1 or R1, 7-8, 9, 12, 22, 25, 48, 58 constitute a good background for more advanced work in psychology and related fields.

1 (or R1). INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGY. An introduction to the chief facts, principles, and problems of normal adult psychology, through systematic study of a text, lectures, exercises, and reading in special fields. This course is prerequisite for all other courses in psychology and in education.

4 points either session in Group III. [11]

Winter Session: 1—M., W., and F. at 9 (I). M., W., and F. at 10 (II). Tu., Th., and S. at 9 (III) for freshmen only. Tu., Th., and S. at 10 (IV).

Spring Session: R1—M., W., and F. at 9 (I). M., W., and F. at 10 (II). Tu., Th., and S. at 9 (III) for freshmen only. Tu., Th., and S. at 10 (IV).

PROFESSOR SARGENT, DRS. WENZEL and GRAHAM, and MISS PEASE.

7-8. EXPERIMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY. The course presents the chief problems, methods, and results of experimental psychology. Each student conducts a series of typical individual experiments, participates in certain group experiments, prepares systematic reports of results, and is introduced to the literature of experimental psychology. Full-year course.

Prerequisite, Course 1 or the equivalent. (Written permission required for specific section.) 8 points in Group II. [11]

W. and F., 1-4 (I) limited to 18 students.

M. and W., 1-4 (II) limited to 12 students.

Tu. and Th., 2-5 (III) limited to 18 students.

Tu. and Th., 2-5 (IV) limited to 12 students.

M. and F., 1-4 (V) for non-majors. Limited to 12 students.

PROFESSORS YOUTZ and SARGENT, DRs. WENZEL and GRAHAM, and MISS PEASE.

9. PSYCHOMETRIC METHODS. Designed to acquaint students with quantitative methods in psychology and allied subjects. Topics included are a review of basic statistics, psychological scaling methods, statistical estimation and prediction, testing hypotheses, measuring reliability and validity, and theory of test construction.

Prerequisite, Course 7-8. No credit allowed students who have taken Economics 18. M., W., and F. at 11. 3 points in Group II. [3]

MISS PEASE.

12. PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTS. An introduction to standardized scales of mental measurement through demonstration of their nature, use and interpretation, and practice in their administration. Each student must arrange to bring at least one child to the college for examination for at least one afternoon laboratory period.

Prerequisite, Course 7-8. Tu. at 9 and W., 1-4. 3 points in Group II. [10]

DR. WENZEL.

22. ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY. A general survey of the field of psychopathology, the history of the subject, the more common forms of mental inadequacy and disturbance and their psychological interpretation, including the principles of mental hygiene and psychotherapy.

Open to juniors and seniors who have had Psychology 1 (or R1) and one or more additional courses in psychology. Tu. and Th. at 11 and consultations in connection with readings for the third point. 3 points in Group II. [8]

PROFESSOR YOUTZ.

23. APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY. Applications of psychology to problems of vocational guidance and selection, personnel, industrial efficiency, advertising and selling, clinical work, detection and treatment of delinquents and criminals, and other problems of practical interest.

Prerequisite, Course 1 or the equivalent. Tu. and Th. at 10. 2 or, with written permission of the instructor for additional conferences on a project, 3 points in Group II. [7]

PROFESSOR YOUTZ.

25. PHYSIOLOGICAL PSYCHOLOGY. A study of the relationships between physical structure and psychological functions. Emphasis will be placed on phenomena of sensation and perception, but attention will also be given to principles of neural action, learning and retention, thinking, and speech.

Prerequisite, Course 1 or the equivalent plus one of the following: Course

7-8, Zoölogy 1-2, or Zoölogy 9-10. Tu. and Th. at 11 and consultations in connection with a paper for the third point. 3 points in Group II. [8]

DR. WENZEL.

26. PSYCHOLOGY OF PERSONALITY. A survey of the contemporary methods and views of the description of the individual, including the factors in the development of personality and the practical aspects of personal adjustment in changing society. Attention is given to the contributions from experimental psychology.

Prerequisite, Course 1 or the equivalent. M. and W. at 9 and consultations in connection with a paper for the third point. 3 points in Group III. [1]

MISS PEASE.

27. PSYCHOLOGY OF CHILDHOOD. A detailed study of the practical problems of infancy and early childhood, with special emphasis on learning, emotional development, social adjustment, and modern conceptions and methods of child training and guidance. Observation of children in a nursery school for one hour each week.

Prerequisite, Course 1 or the equivalent. M., W., and F. at 10 and consultations in connection with reports for the fourth point. 4 points in Group III. [2]

DR. GRAHAM.

28. PSYCHOLOGY OF ADOLESCENCE AND MATURITY. The mental, social, moral, and emotional development of adolescents and mature persons will be studied, special attention being given to such topics as guidance, adjustment, interests, motivation, home problems, sex relations, recreation, delinquency, and citizenship.

Prerequisite, Course 27. M., W., and F. at 10. 3 points, or with consultations in connection with a project or paper for the fourth point, 4 points in Group III. [2]

DR. GRAHAM.

Motives and frustrations in relation to social behavior; social learning, communication, social roles and social interaction; social-psychological interpretation of public opinion, propaganda, leadership, mass behavior, social movements, prejudice, social change and social conflicts. Contributions from psychology, sociology, anthropology, and psychiatry toward a systematic and useful integration in the field of social relations.

May count toward either a sociology or a psychology major. Prerequisite, Course 1 or Sociology 1-2. M., W., and F. at 3. 3 or, with additional conference hour on a project or paper, 4 points in Group III. [10]

PROFESSORS SARGENT and ARENSBERG.

48. INDIVIDUAL PROJECTS. Qualified students will be guided and supervised in special projects or in the investigation of approved problems.

Open on written permission of the instructor only to major students who have had Course 7-8. Hours to be arranged. 2 points in Group II. [11]

PROFESSORS YOUTZ and SARGENT, DRs. WENZEL and GRAHAM, and MISS PEASE.

58. SYSTEMATIC PSYCHOLOGY. A critical survey of influential psychological viewpoints, schools and trends, both historical and contemporary. Representative topics are discussed by the instructor with the aim of achieving a systematic interpretation. During the second half of the course students report on outstanding psychologists and psychological contributions at home and abroad.

Required of all major students except those electing 6 points in philosophy, and open to those who have had Course 7-8. Tu and Th. at 10 and consultations in connection with work for the third point. 3 points in Group II. [7]

PROFESSOR SARGENT.

RECREATIONAL LEADERSHIP

MARGARET HOLLAND, A.M., Assistant Professor of Physical Education and CORINNE T. BIZE, A.M., Instructor in Physical Education, and members from the Departments of Sociology and Psychology. Outside agencies which specialize in the fields of music, crafts, and story-telling also contribute to this course.

I or RI. INTRODUCTORY COURSE. This course is planned to give students an intelligent understanding and appreciation of the whole field of recreation. It consists of lectures, discussions, practice and participation in recreational activities such as community music, arts and crafts, informal dramatics, story-telling, games, and other informal social activities.

Volunteer field work prescribed in Psychology 27, 28 and Sociology 22 may be accepted in this course.

Participation in extracurricular activities which are related to recreation and social work is especially recommended for practice and experience.

M. and W. at 4. Additional hours arranged for field work. 2 points Spring Session.

RELIGION

URSULA M. NIEBUHR, S.T.M., M.A. (Oxon.), Assistant Professor of Religion,
Executive officer

JOHN E. SMITH, B.D., Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Philosophy

A major in religion. Students majoring in religion will be required to take: 20 points in the department, and 8 from the related fields of philosophy, history, and anthropology.

Students may combine work in other departments with religion to make up a group of correlated courses, such as Hebrew (O.T.) and early Christian Religion, with ancient history, and philosophy or art; or comparative religion with philosophy and anthropology; the history of Christian thought with European history and medieval or modern literature or art. Certain of these courses may also count toward the requirement in Group I and should be selected in consultation with the adviser.

The attention of students is drawn to certain courses in other departments which well may be related to the study of Religion.

ZOÖLOGY

FLORENCE DE LOISELLE LOWTHER, Ph.D., Professor of Zoölogy

JOHN A. MOORE, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Zoölogy,

Executive officer

AUBREY GORBMAN, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Zoölogy

INGRITH J. DEYRUP, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Zoölogy

A major in zoölogy. Students majoring in zoölogy will be required to take:

Zoölogy. Course 1-2 and other courses in combination or in sequence which will vary with the individual interest and purpose of the student and should be arranged in consultation with the department.

Other fields. The work will vary with the special interest of the student and should be arranged in consultation with the major department.

1-2. GENERAL ZOÖLOGY. An elementary course covering the general characteristics of living organisms, the major invertebrate phyla, the important parasites of man, the structure and development of the vertebrates, human physiology, heredity, and evolution. Full-year course.

Lectures: M., W., and F. at 9. Laboratory (4 hours): M., 1-5 (I), Tu. and Th., 2-4 (II), W., 1-5 (III), F., 1-5 (IV). 10 points. [1]

PROFESSOR MOORE and assistants.

1a-2a. GENERAL ZOÖLOGY. Lectures identical with those of 1-2. No laboratory work. Full-year course.

To follow or parallel a laboratory science. M., W., and F. at 9. 6 points. [1]

PROFESSOR MOORE.

6. EVOLUTION OF MAN. A course which includes the study of the history of evolutionary thought, the paleontological evidence of man's origin and his relationship to lower forms.

Prerequisite, Course 1-2. Tu. at 2 and Th., 2-4 at the Museum of Natural History. 3 points. [9]

PROFESSOR LOWTHER.

9-10. HUMAN BIOLOGY. An elementary course designed especially for students whose interests are not primarily zoölogical. Full-year course.

Open to students of all classes. Will not satisfy the requirement of a laboratory science. Lectures: Tu. and Th. at 10. Conferences and demonstrations: F., 2-4. Not open to students who have had or who may elect Zoölogy 1-2. 6 points. [7]

PROFESSOR LOWTHER.

13. HISTOLOGY AND HISTOLOGICAL METHODS. The microscopic anatomy of vertebrates studied in its descriptive, developmental, comparative, and functional aspects. A portion of the laboratory work is devoted to preparation of tissues for microscopic study.

Prerequisite, Course 1-2. Lectures: Tu. and Th. at 11. Laboratory and conferences (4 hours): W., 1-5, or Th., 1-5. 4 points. [8]

PROFESSOR GORBMAN.

14. EMBRYOLOGY. An introductory study of the development of the vertebrate animal, with a consideration of some of the factors which influence development.

Prerequisite, Course 1-2. Lectures: Tu. and Th. at 11. Laboratory (4 hours): W., 1-5 or Th., 1-5. 4 points. [8]

PROFESSOR GORBMAN.

61, 62. PROBLEMS IN ZOOLOGY.

Work will be planned to suit the needs of students after consultation with the instructors. Hours and credit by arrangement. [0]

PROFESSORS LOWTHER, MOORE, GORBMAN and DEYRUP.

[71, 72. SEMINAR AND PROBLEMS FOR SENIORS.

4 points. Not given in 1949-50.]

PROFESSORS LOWTHER, MOORE, GORBMAN, and DEYRUP.

97R. COMPARATIVE MORPHOLOGY OF VERTEBRATES.

Prerequisite, Course 1-2 (Courses 13, 14 are recommended). Lectures: M., W., and F. at 10. Laboratory (6 hours): M. and W., 2-5 or Tu. and Th., 2-5. 6 points. [2]

PROFESSOR LOWTHER.

98R. GENERAL PHYSIOLOGY. The physical characteristics and chemical composition of protoplasm. Fundamental biological properties of protoplasm. The relationship between living organisms and their environments.

Prerequisite, Course 1-2 and Chemistry 1-2. Lectures: M., W., and F. at 10. Laboratory (6 hours): M. and W., 2-5 or Tu. and Th., 2-5. 6 points. [2]

PROFESSOR DEYRUP.

121. ANIMAL ECOLOGY. A study of the interrelation between the organism and its environment. The field work will consist of a study of the local marine, terrestrial, and fresh water habitats.

Prerequisite, Course 1-2; a course in invertebrate zoölogy is recommended. Lectures: Tu. and Th. at 9. Laboratory or a field trip will be held on Saturday. Written permission of the instructor required. 4 points. [6]

PROFESSOR MOORE.

130. ENDOCRINOLOGY. Lectures will deal with the morphological, physiological and biochemical phenomena associated with endocrine function. Laboratory will provide an introduction to some of the basic experimental procedures in endocrinology.

Prerequisite, Courses 1-2 and 13. Organic chemistry recommended. Written permission of instructor required. Lectures: Tu. and F. at 3. Laboratory (4 hours): M., 1-5. 4 points.

PROFESSOR GORBMAN.

152. PHYSIOLOGY. General principles of vertebrate physiology.

Prerequisite, Course 1-2 and organic chemistry. Lectures: M., W., and F. at 11. Laboratory (6 hours): Tu. and Th., 2-5. 6 points. [3]

PROFESSOR DEYRUP.

GRADUATE COURSES

Certain graduate courses given at Columbia University are open with the consent of the department and the Committee on Students' Programs of Barnard College to specially qualified students. A description of these courses will be found in the Announcement of the Faculty of Pure Science. The following are recommended:

**Zoölogy* 101. General Zoölogy. PROFESSOR GREGG. 5 points.

**Zoölogy* 105. Heredity. PROFESSOR DUNN. 3 points.

**Zoölogy* 106. Evolution. PROFESSOR DOBZHANSKY. 3 points.

*G. S. Zoölogy 111. Evolution of Man. PROFESSOR MCGREGOR. 3 points.

EXAMINATION GROUPING OF BARNARD COLLEGE COURSES

1949-1950

Courses in Barnard College are arranged in examination groups in order to avoid conflicts on the examination schedule. These groups are indicated by Arabic boldface numerals in brackets immediately following the statement of points. Group 0 includes courses which ordinarily do not have set examinations. No student may elect two courses in the same examination (except Group 0) without making special arrangements through the Registrar's office for doing so.

STUDENTS' LOAN FUND

A Students' Loan Fund is maintained by the Associate Alumnae. From this fund loans are made at a low rate of interest to upper classmen in need of financial assistance for college tuition and residence fees. The maximum amount loaned to any one student is definitely limited. Loans are made on a single semester's basis, and applications must be presented for each semester. The principal and interest are to be paid on a quarterly basis within three years after graduation in the case of loans of $200 or less and within five years in the case of all larger loans. No interest, however, is charged upon any principal repaid within six months after graduation. Inquiries may be made of the Alumnae Secretary in the Associate Alumnae Office, Barnard Hall.

The operation of this fund as a revolving loan fund, as distinct from the special scholarship funds mentioned below, makes it possible to keep the capital in continuous use by successive generations of students. The committee does not deem it advisable to lend a very large amount to any one student, as it has found in its experience over the last few years that repayments proved a burden on the borrowers, particularly if the time schedule of repayment cannot be maintained and interest accumulates. However, the committee desires to make the fund as helpful as possible and wishes to have students in need of assistance apply to it freely and consult with the committee as to possible methods of meeting their financial difficulties.

SCHOLARSHIPS, GRANTS-IN-AID, LOANS

PURPOSE. The College desires that no student of exceptional ability shall be kept away from Barnard because her family has only moderate means. To aid students financially, there are Scholarships, Grants-in-aid, a Loan Fund (see above) and provisions in the Placement Office (see page 147) for enabling girls to earn a little money toward their personal expenses.

SCHOLARSHIPS. Scholarships are awarded annually on a competitive basis by the Faculty Committee on Scholarships to full-time students of high scholarly ability, excellent character, and promise of future usefulness, who are in need of aid.

For resident students—that is, those who live in Brooks or Hewitt Halls—they range in value from $150 to $900 a year.

For students who do not live at the College, they range in value from $50 to $400.

If a student fails to maintain a satisfactory average in her work, or if for any other reason she comes under college censure, she may forfeit her scholarship and be ineligible for reelection the following term.

GRANTS-IN-AID. Grants-in-aid are awarded by the Faculty Committee on Scholarships to deserving and needy students to help them to enter or to remain in college. No student whose record falls below an average of C will ordinarily be considered eligible for such a grant.

RESIDENCE GRANTS. Residence grants are awarded by the Faculty Committee on Scholarships to enable students to live in the residence halls. They range in value from $25 to $400.

APPLICATIONS FROM STUDENTS IN COLLEGE. On or before the first of March of each year all applications for scholarships, grants-in-aid, and residence grants must be filed at the Dean's office upon special blanks to be obtained there.

APPLICATIONS FROM ENTERING STUDENTS. On or before the first of March applications for scholarships should be in the hands of the Committee on Admissions. Blanks for this purpose may be obtained from the Office of Admissions.

Applicants are required to take the Scholastic Aptitude Program I and Achievement Tests of the College Entrance Examination Board in April of their senior year, unless they are applying for admission with advanced standing from another institution.

Except for a very few special scholarships, students should not apply for scholarships by name, but should merely indicate the minimum sum needed.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS. Applicants will be informed by the Chairman of the Committee on Scholarships as soon as awards have been made. Applicants receiving awards are requested to inform the Dean's office immediately, in writing, if they do not intend to use the funds awarded.

Holders of scholarships, grants-in-aid, and residence grants are requested to file with the Bursar at the time of registration a scholarship certificate to be obtained from the Secretary to the Dean.

COMPETITIVE ENTRANCE SCHOLARSHIPS

BROOKLYN SCHOLARSHIPS. ($150 EACH). Founded in 1895 by the Trustees of Columbia University in recognition of the gift to Columbia University by President Seth Low of a memorial building for the University Library. Open to students resident in Brooklyn and prepared in a Brooklyn school.

LUCILLE PULITZER SCHOLARSHIPS ($300 TO $900 EACH). Founded by the late Joseph Pulitzer in memory of his daughter, Lucille Pulitzer.

Three are restricted to students from the City of New York; eight are for resident students.

JESSIE KAUFMANN SCHOLARSHIP. The income of a fund of $4,000. Founded in 1902 by Mr. Julius Kaufmann in memory of his daughter, Jessie Kaufmann. Awarded on the merits of the entrance examinations to a student who, after careful investigation, is found to have no relative able to assist her financially. It may be held for the entire college course.

MARTHA T. FISKE SCHOLARSHIP. The income of a fund of $5,000. Founded in 1911 by Miss Anna E. Smith, in memory of her sister, Mrs. Martha T. Fiske-Collord. It is awarded, on the basis of scholarly ability and general character, to some deserving candidate not a resident of New York City or its suburbs.

CARPENTIER RESIDENCE SCHOLARSHIPS ($400 TO $900 EACH). Founded in 1919 with a bequest from the late Horace W. Carpentier. Awarded annually to students who are not residents of New York City or its vicinity.

GENERAL SCHOLARSHIPS

ELLA WEED SCHOLARSHIP. The income of a fund of approximately $3,600. Originally established in 1895 by the pupils and alumnae of Miss Anne Brown's School in memory of Miss Ella Weed, who was chairman of the Academic Committee of the Board of Trustees of Barnard College during the first five years of its existence.

JENNIE B. CLARKSON SCHOLARSHIP. The income of a fund of $3,000. Founded in 1898 by the late Mrs. W. R. Clarkson.

EMILY JAMES SMITH SCHOLARSHIP. The income of a fund of $3,000. Founded in 1899 by the late Miss Emily H. Bourne in honor of Miss Smith, then Dean of Barnard College.

ANNA E. BARNARD SCHOLARSHIP. The income of a fund of $3,000. Founded in 1899 by the late Miss Emily H. Bourne in honor of Mrs. John G. Barnard.

BREARLEY SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP. The income of a fund of $3,000. Founded in 1899 by pupils and former pupils of the Brearley School.

ELIZA TAYLOR CHISHOLM MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP. The income of a fund of $3,000. Founded in 1901 by the Alumnae Association of Miss Chisholm's School, which Association reserves the privilege of precedence for such candidates as it may recommend.

EMMA HERTZOG SCHOLARSHIP. The income of a fund of $3,000. Founded in 1904 by gifts from residents of Yonkers, N. Y. It is awarded, in conference with the faculty of the Yonkers High School, to a graduate of that school who is entering Barnard College.

VELTIN SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP. The income of a fund of $3,000. Founded in 1905 by the alumnae of Mlle. Veltin's School.

MRS. DONALD McLEAN SCHOLARSHIP. The income of a fund of $3,000. Founded in 1906 by the New York City Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. It is awarded, in conference with a representative of the Chapter, to a deserving student who agrees to pursue the study of history (chiefly that of the United States) continuously throughout her college course.

ESTELLE M. ALLISON PRIZE. A prize consisting of the income of a fund of $1,000, founded in 1937 with a bequest from the late Estelle M. Allison, is awarded annually to a student for excellence in literature.

PRIZE ESSAY CONTEST IN COLONIAL HISTORY. The National Society of Colonial Dames in the State of New York sponsors an annual prize essay contest open to Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors of Barnard College. The first prize is $50 and a gold medal; the second prize is a gold medal.

A topic will be selected from the field of American colonial history by the Barnard College History Department and submitted for approval to the Colonial Dames. This should be done by October of each year. Students will then write essays on the subject, which will be submitted to the History Department and judged for literary excellence and historical accuracy. The History Department, as shortly after March 1 as possible, will then submit the four or five best essays to the Colonial Dames for final judgment of the two prize-winners. The essays should be from 5,000 to 10,000 words in length. The awards will be announced by May 1.

The following prizes of Columbia University are by their terms open to students of Barnard College:

BENNETT PRIZE. A prize established through a gift of $1,000 from James Gordon Bennett may be awarded by the Faculty of Political Science for the best essay upon some subject of contemporary interest in the domestic or foreign policy of the United States. The competition is open to students not holding a Baccalaureate degree who pursue satisfactory courses in Political Science. The subjects for the essay to be handed in May 1, 1950 are: "Should the United States Support a Policy of a Western Union in Europe." "The Problem of Leadership in the American Democracy." For additional information consult Professor L. H. Chamberlain.

THE BUNNER MEDAL. The H. C. Bunner Gold Medal, established by the friends of the late Henry Cuyler Bunner, is awarded annually at Commencement to the candidate for a Columbia degree who shall present the best essay on an assigned subject in American literature. The award will be made by a committee to be appointed by the President. The subject for the essay to be handed in May 1, 1950, is: "Lincoln As a Man of Letters." For additional information consult Professor Henry K. Dick.

EARLE PRIZE IN CLASSICS. A prize of $50, established in memory of Mortimer Lamson Earle, Instructor in Greek in Barnard College from 1889 to 1895 and from 1898 to 1900, and Professor of Classical Philology from 1900 to 1905, is open for annual competition to all candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts. It is awarded partly on the basis of a special examination, partly on the basis of consistently good work in the regular Greek and Latin courses. The special examination covers specified portions of Greek and Latin literature, sight reading in Greek and in Latin, and prose composition in Greek and in Latin. The special subjects for 1950 are: "Euripides, Hercules Furens (The revised edition of A. Gray and J. T. Hutchinson)." "Cicero, Tusculan Disputations, Book I (Edition of H. C. Nutting)."

For the award in 1950, the examination will be held in January. Students are urged to do much of their work for the examination during the preceding summer vacation. For further information consult Professor Moses Hadas.

THE CAROLINE PHELPS STOKES PRIZE. The Caroline Phelps Stokes Prize of $40 is awarded annually at Commencement to that student who, having been regularly enrolled in Columbia College, or Barnard College, or Teachers College as a candidate for an academic degree, for not less than two sessions, winter or spring, shall be deemed to have written the best essay upon an assigned topic bearing upon the rights of man. Topics for 1949-50 are as follows: The Relation Between Human Rights and Property Rights in Twentieth Century America; The Quakers and Human Rights. For additional information consult Professor Horace Taylor.

VAN RENSSELAER PRIZE: To the candidate for a degree in Columbia University who is the author of the best example of English lyric verse. Material must be submitted by March 15. Applicants should submit not more than three poems of their own choice, aggregating not more than twenty pages. Income of the Marianna Griswold Van Rensselaer Fund, about $50. For additional details, consult Professor Van Doren.

WOODBERRY PRIZE: To be awarded every second year to an undergraduate student of the University for the best original poem. Material must be submitted by March 15. Applicants should submit not more than three poems of their own choice, aggregating not more than twenty pages, unless a single poem is submitted in excess of that amount. Established by the Woodberry Society as a memorial to the late George Edward Woodberry. If in the opinion of the committee of judges no poem submitted in any prize year is worthy of this award, the prize will not be given. Value of prize about $100. For additional details, consult Professor Campbell.

SUSAN HUNTINGTON VERNON PRIZE. This prize is awarded annually, on recommendation of the Executive Officer of the Department of Spanish, for excellence in Spanish to the best student of the Graduate Class among the following colleges: Barnard, Mt. Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar, and Wellesley. The value of the prize is about $25.00, the annual income of the fund established in 1941 by pupils and friends of Mrs. Vernon in tribute to her work at the Hispanic Institute and augmented by her in 1943.

GENERAL INFORMATION

ADVICE TO STUDENTS

The Dean is always glad to confer with a student regarding any matters that may be of interest to her and individual instructors may also be consulted at any time.

Before planning her program for the coming year, every student must consult her class adviser and, in the case of juniors and seniors, her major adviser, according to regulations announced by the Committee on Instruction.

Not later than the spring session of her sophomore year, a student should consult the Placement Office regarding opportunities for work after graduation and the necessary prerequisites.

ASSEMBLIES

College assemblies, and academic meetings at which attendance is required, are held on Tuesday at 1:10 o'clock. Students must keep this hour free from other engagements. Assemblies are planned by a joint committee of the Faculty and of the Undergraduate Association. These bring distinguished speakers to the College and provide a forum for the discussion of important College matters.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The University Medical Officer, Dr. Carl R. Wise, the College Physician, Dr. Marjory J. Nelson, and the Executive Officer of the Department of Physical Education, Professor Margaret Holland, by means of lectures, health service, and an extensive program of activities, endeavor to promote and develop both the health and recreational resources of the student. These officers are assisted in the administration of this program by an assistant physician, two trained nurses, and six members of the Department of Physical Education.

A complete medical examination, including chest x-ray and eye examination, is required of each student before entrance. This examination should be done by the family physician. During the second term of the Freshman and Sophomore years, and first term of the Senior year, each student must report to the College Physician's office for a medical examination. The results of these examinations determine the type of physical activity the student should take. The program is planned also to meet the problem of individual differences and interests. Emphasis is placed on the maintenance of good health through the acquisition of knowledge and attitudes relating to health and upon the teaching and learning of recreational and developmental skills which can be used after college. The schedule is planned and organized to permit participation in a program of activities out-of-doors in the fall and spring.

Barnard Hall is the laboratory for the Health and Physical Education program. In addition to the medical office and the offices of the Department of Physical Education, Barnard Hall contains the gymnasium, swimming pool, corrective rooms, rest rooms, and a dance studio. Seven tennis courts, two golf cages, an archery range, deck tennis courts, both north and south lawns and the roof of Barnard Hall complete the facilities for an extensive program of activities.

Barnard College Camp, occupying a 20-acre plot of wooded land in Westchester County, near Ossining, N. Y., was a gift of the Alumnae Association to the college in October, 1933. The camp is organized and administered by a committee representing the Athletic Association, the Department of Physical Education, the Faculty at large, and the Alumnae. It furnishes an ideal opportunity for recreation and activity in the open as well as for practice and learning of camp crafts.

The program offers unlimited opportunity for the development and training of student leaders through service to the Athletic Association as committee chairmen, members of committees, and members of the Executive Board of the Athletic Association.

PLACEMENT OFFICE

The Placement Office, which is maintained by the College for the benefit of students and alumnae, offers assistance in planning for and obtaining full or part-time positions. Through personal interviews, testing and consultation of records, its staff attempts to guide students and alumnae into occupations that utilize their capabilities to the fullest extent.

A personal record for each student and alumna is maintained and kept up to date. This includes faculty and employer recommendations, scholastic achievements, extra-curricular activities, vocational interests and employment. The Office refers qualified candidates to employers and supports these nominations, and applications made directly by candidates on their own initiative, by supplying recommendations written by faculty members and employers.

The Office and the College Library maintain a joint vocational library of books, pamphlets, and bibliographies, as well as files of civil service examination notices and regulations of state and city educational departments. Information concerning occupational problems, opportunities, and requirements is accumulated through the survey of alumnae occupations and earnings made in connection with the Alumnae Register and through individual reports of graduates. The student Vocational Committee plans and presents an annual vocational conference in cooperation with the Office and the Advisory Vocational Committee of the Associate Alumnae. Members of the faculty assist students with information and advice in regard to their respective fields.

In general, a student should have funds available for the first year's expenses. It is not advisable for a student to undertake employment during the freshman year, since it is difficult for her to estimate at first the amount of time that can safely be spared from academic work. After the first year, an able student in good health can earn a part of her expenses if the hours of the part-time work fit her schedule. A student who carries a full course cannot expect, however, to earn all of her tuition and living expenses.

Various kinds of temporary summer work may be obtained through the Placement Office. It is hoped that students may secure experience that will be of use to them in their chosen fields of interest, although the best opportunities for earning may not coincide with those that offer the most valuable experience.

RESIDENCE HALLS

Brooks Hall and Hewitt Hall (see page 4), the residence halls for Barnard College students will open at noon Sunday, September 25, 1949, and will close at 12 noon Saturday, June 10, 1950. Applications for rooms are provided the candidates for admission who are accepted as resident students by the Committee on Admissions. Any student who is required by the college to return for an appointment or an examination September 19-23, inclusive, should make arrangements directly with the Director of Residence Halls not later than September 16, 1949.

Full information in regard to the situation and cost of rooms and the advance deposit is published in a separate pamphlet, to be had on application to the Director of Residence Halls, Barnard College, New York 27, New York. All checks and money orders should be made payable to the order of Barnard College. For the residence hall fees see page 19.

The post office address for resident students is Brooks Hall, 3001 Broadway, New York 27, New York.

All students not residing with their parents are required to live in Brooks Hall or Hewitt Hall unless they receive special permission to live with relatives. Applications for such permission, accompanied by letters of approval from parents or guardians, should be made before September 1 to Dr. Lorna F. McGuire, Associate Dean. Reservations for rooms outside, made without permission, will not be approved.

The King's Crown Hotel, located at 420 West 116th Street, in close proximity to the University, is owned by the University. It provides accommodations at reasonable rates for relatives and guests of members of the University.

INFIRMARY

The Johnson Hall Infirmary of Columbia University is available to resident students who need its services. Nurses are on duty in this infirmary twenty-four hours a day. There is no charge for meals. (See FEES, page 18.)

ST. PAUL'S CHAPEL AND RELIGIOUS AFFAIRS

St. Paul's Chapel, situated on the University campus, is open for prayers and meditation daily. On Sundays there are Services of Holy Communion at 9 a.m. and 12:30 Noon, and at 11:00 a.m. there is Morning Prayer with sermon. The Chaplain of the University and leading preachers from various parts of the country are to be heard at this time. Each weekday (except Saturday) a short Service is held at noon, addressed by a distinguished speaker, or devoted solely to prayer and the ministry of music. The Chapel Choir of fifty students sings at these Services. Attendance is voluntary, and a plan of Chapel membership is available for those who wish to identify themselves more closely with the life and work of the Chapel.

The Acting-Chaplain of the University, the Rev. James Albert Pike, J.S.D., is always glad to meet students in consultation. Beside the Chaplain and his assistants there are Counselors for Roman Catholic, Jewish, and Protestant students, all of whom have offices in Earl Hall, where are centered other religious activities for both Barnard and Columbia students.

OFFICE OF RELIGIOUS AFFAIRS. There is an Office for Religious Affairs at Barnard College at the Riverside Building, Room 4, with a part-time secretary who will help with student religious organizations. The Advisory Faculty Committee for Religious Affairs consists of Associate Dean McGuire, Professor Ursula Niebuhr, and Professor John Smith.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Every student, regular or unclassified, is a member of the Undergraduate Association, and as such is at liberty, on payment of the student fee, to take part in all general undergraduate and class functions, to make use of all privileges of the Athletic Association, and to receive the College paper and literary quarterly. Special students may become special and Associate members of the Association, if they so desire.

The Undergraduate Association elects a Student Council and a Representative Assembly, which, subject to the approval of the Faculty, supervise the various student organizations at the College. On the Student Council is the chairman of the Honor Board which administers the Honor Code in accordance with which all students on entering Barnard College agree to maintain a high standard of honor in examinations and all phases of college life.

THE UNIVERSITY BOOKSTORE

The official University Bookstore is situated in the Journalism Building, with entrances at the southeast corner of 116th Street and Broadway, and from South Quadrangle between Furnald Hall and Journalism. Books and other supplies are sold at discounts from the usual prices. The store is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 A.M. to 8:00 P.M.; Saturday, 8:30 A.M. to 5 P.M.; during the first days of each session, until 10 P.M. The store maintains a soda fountain and tea room serving breakfast, lunch, and supper, a theater-concert bureau, and other services with substantial savings to Columbia students. Students having deposit accounts with the University may also make withdrawals at the bookstore.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

The Ella Weed Library of Barnard College comprises the main library in Barnard Hall and the department libraries of Botany, Chemistry, Geology, Physics, and Zoölogy located in Milbank. A total collection of over 68,000 volumes serves the general reading needs of Barnard students. Throughout the academic year the Library is open daily except Sundays and holidays from 8:45 a.m. to 9:55 p.m. Monday through Friday and 8:45 a.m. to 4:55 p.m. Saturday. The Library is open also on announced Sundays from 2:30 p.m. to 5:25 p.m.

The Libraries of the University contain more than 2,000,000 volumes, exclusive of unbound pamphlets. The main collection is housed in the Nicholas Murray Butler Library at 114th Street. All the libraries on the university campus, including that of Teachers College, are open to Barnard students. The Bursar's receipt serves as identification.

UNIVERSITY TRAVEL SERVICE

The Columbia University Travel Service is the official travel agency of the University. The bureau is a member of the American Association of Travel Agents (ASTA) and is the recognized and appointed agent in this area for the various steamship, air, bus, and other travel companies. Reservations and tickets for all types of travel may be obtained at the bureau as well as hotel accommodations at point of destination. There is no charge for this service. Travel information, circulars, and help with visa problems are also available.

The Travel Bureau serves as travel agent for WORLD STUDY TOURS.

During the summer months the bureau conducts sight-seeing and other tours in the metropolitan area and to other points of historical and literary interest. The Travel Bureau is located for convenience in the University Bookstore (on the balcony) at Broadway and 116th Street.
